Republicans Signal Action on Tax Plan; Truman's Is Filed

'Cost of Living' Cut Offered by Truman Passed by in Favor of New Plan

Washington, Jan. 15 (AP)—Republicans today passed a "file and forget" tag on President Truman's proposal for a "cost of living" cut in income taxes balanced by a new excess profits levy on corporations.

With even key Congressional Democrats showing little enthusiasm for the White House plan, the majority leadership signaled instead for action on a measure by Rep. Knutson (R-Minn.) to reduce income taxes $5,000,000,000 a year, mainly on a percentage basis.

The House Ways and Means Committee which Knutson heads was summoned to take up his bill tomorrow. Secretary of the Treasury Snyder was invited as the first witness.

The President's proposal went before Congress late yesterday after he conferred at the White House with Reps. Doughton, W. C. Cramer (D-Tenn.) and Dingell (D-Mich.), all members of the Ways and Means Committee.

To the surprise of many it was introduced by Dingell instead of Doughton, who is House manager of tax matters for his party and headed the committee when Democrats controlled Congress.

"I wasn't ready to take a position," Doughton told reporters. "I wasn't consulted before the bill was drafted."

Senator George (D-Ga.), Democratic leader on tax legislation in the Senate, said "no comment" when asked what he thought of it.

The measure would:

1. Give each taxpayer a flat $40 a year reduction for himself and each dependent dated back to January 1. Thus a man with a wife and two children would pay $160 less in 1948. This would remove 10,000,000 persons from the tax rolls and reduce the taxes of 44,000,000 others.
2. Recoup the $3,200,000,000 loss of federal revenue by a new 75 per cent excess profits tax on corporations. Corporations with profits of $50,000 or less would be exempt. Others would receive an exemption of 135 per cent of their average 1935-39 profit plus $50,000.
3. Would Figure Exemption

A corporation with an average net income of $100,000 in the 1935-39 period would figure its exemption by adding 35 per cent, making $135,000, and then another $50,000.

Treasurer Plans To Obey Budget

Firemen, Face Payless Day in View of Increases

Members of the Kingston Fire Department face a payless day today. The payroll as prepared by Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy and signed by the fire commissioners will be submitted to the city treasurer this afternoon, but will not be signed by that officer, it was learned today.

Chief Murphy, who is secretary of the board of fire commissioners, said that the payroll is made out following the salary schedules adopted by the fire commissioners in December, which grant increases to all members comparable to those received by the police department.

This payroll has been prepared by the chief, and approved by the fire commissioners. It now must be presented to the city treasurer, who must sign the checks.

Will Follow Budget

Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk said this morning, however, that the city treasurer "will go according to the budget as passed by the Common Council." This budget provides money only for firemen's salaries as they were before the commissioners granted the raise.

City Treasurer Oscar A. Gould said today that he would not sign a payroll that did not conform with the budget as adopted by the Council.

The only possibility that the firemen might get paid today would be if the fire commissioners held a special meeting before 5 p. m. when the city treasurer closes, and prepare a new payroll, using the old pay scale.

Fire Chief Murphy, as well as one of the commissioners contacted today, said that such a procedure would be unlikely.

Other departments of the city which observe today as paydays, do not expect any trouble in obtaining their pay. The police department.

Five Men Are Freed in Bail On False Export Charges

New York, Jan. 15 (AP)—Accused of violating federal law in connection with attempted shipments of explosives to Palestine, five men were freed in bail of $1,000 each today and F.B.I. agents pressed search for five other suspects.

The five defendants arraigned late yesterday before U. S. District Judge William Bondy, are awaiting federal grand jury action on charges of making false export declarations. The maximum penalty is 10 years imprisonment and $1,000 fine.

One of their attorneys, Lester R. Baehner, said after the arraignment that none ever had been in trouble before and declared: "If they violated the law, it was with the highest of motives."

Paralyzing Cold Hits Most of State

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 15 (AP)—Paralyzing cold struck New York state today, shoving the mercury to new sub-zero lows.

An unofficial 40 below came from the Henry Norman farm near Potsdam in the north. The official reading at Potsdam was minus 24. Owls Head, traditional icebox of the Adirondacks, reported minus 28. Saratoga Springs registered a four-year record of 22.5 below.

An unidentified man was found unconscious, with frozen limbs, in a snow bank at Albany.

The -10 temperature broke by seven degrees a date record set in 1879 and equalled six years ago.

The Weather Bureau said the mercury would rise to -10.

Other below-zero temperatures:

Canton and Ticonderoga, 20; Elmira, 18; Utica, 17; Oneonta, 16; Poughkeepsie, 15; Rome and Glens Falls, 14; Malone, 13; Cortland, 12; Fort Plain, 11; Newburgh, 10; and Syracuse and Rochester, 2.

Jackson Kitchen Wrecked by Fire, Damage Is $500

Bursting Oil Reservoir Is Blamed for Blaze; Firemen Check Raging Flames

The interior and all the furnishings and fixtures in the kitchen in the apartment of Mrs. Mary Jackson at 235 East Strand were destroyed by fire which broke out at 4:15 p. m. Wednesday. Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy attributed the fire to a bursting reservoir on an oil stove used for cooking.

Mrs. Jackson said today that the stove, which was brand new, her kitchen cabinet, ice box, two tables, and several chairs were completely destroyed. Also, the interior of the kitchen was considerably damaged by smoke, she said. Unofficial estimates placed the loss at over $500.

Chief Murphy reported that Mrs. Jackson had lit the stove and was in the living room with the baby when she saw smoke coming from the kitchen. She called the owner of the building, Lofton Royal, who also occupies an apartment there, and then she left the building with the baby, Chief Murphy said.

Royal attempted to shut off the burner, but was driven from the room by smoke and flames, he told the chief. Royal then called the fire department by telephone, after which he went to the corner of East Union and Sycamore streets, and pulled box 2241, Chief Murphy reported.

Firemen reported that the fire had gained considerable headway, and flames were coming out of the kitchen windows, when they arrived at the scene. Two lines of hose were laid, only one of which was used. Firemen were able to confine the fire to the kitchen and the hall, they said.

Chief Murphy reported that when Mrs. Jackson turned on the oil, some flowed on the fan under the burner and ignited from the oven burner. Heat from the burning oil burst a glass reservoir, the chief said, which caused a fast burning fire.

Engine 2 from Cornell station responded on the telephone alarm, and Union Hose Company and Truck 1 from the Central station responded to the box alarm.

The house is a two story frame apartment building, owned by Royal and occupied by the owner, Mrs. Jackson, and by George Washington, the fire department reported. There is also a store in the building, presently unoccupied.

Residents Kill Selves

Nanking, Jan. 15 (AP)—Residents of besieged Mukden are hanging themselves "because of lack of food," a government source said today and reported large scale evacuation of the big Manchurian city had begun. "It is easier to fly people out than to fly food in," he explained.

Philip Alper, 23; Moses Wolfson, 34; Jack Dorfman, 26; Joseph Seiger, 24, and Martin Adelson, 21, all of New York, (Adelson's address was listed as 1036 Findlay avenue, the Bronx).

F.B.I. agents said federal warrants had been issued for two suspects who they believe left for Palestine November 1 aboard the S.S. Russia. The F.B.I. identified them as Nahaman Yardeni, described as the owner of Martech Export Company, of 152 West 42nd street, New York, who allegedly shipped crates containing blasting caps; and Awajji Joseph, named as the owner of

Ex-Napanoch Man Faces Arraignment Today for Murder

Harold Beach, Confessed Killer of Child Takes 7 Pages to Tell of Action

Cleveland, Jan. 15 (AP)—Swagging, self-confident Harold Beach, Jr., former Napanoch, N. Y. Institute inmate, was to be arraigned in Municipal Court today on a first degree murder charge for the New Year's night slaying of eight-year-old Sheila Ann Tukey.

The 22-year-old confessed killer was formerly hooked on a murder charge yesterday after he dictated and signed a seven-page statement, detailing the manner in which he met and stabbed the child.

Prosecutor Frank T. Culligan said there would not be time to prepare the case for presentation to the county grand jury tomorrow.

A crowd estimated by police at 4,000 milled about the scene of the crime last night. Published announcements had stated an hour that Beach would re-enact the slaying for police.

Earlier, however, members of the police homicide squad took Beach secretly over the ground to avoid possible violence.

"We acted to protect Beach from bodily harm," said Lt. David E. Kerr, head of the homicide squad. "Beach's safety as a prisoner is my responsibility, and I was not taking any chances. That neighborhood was becoming so unruly that we had to become so vigilant."

There was no telling what might happen. This is a murder case and not a Roman holiday, our business is to protect those we have in custody."

Dwight Bible, 22, and James T. Cassidy, 32, in whose home Bible rooms, were named as the claimants of the $7,000 in rewards offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the killer of Sheila Ann.

Bible, an electrician's helper, knew something of Beach's background and bowed with him in the same league. When Beach did not show up to bowl, Bible had Cassidy, a bus driver, telephone his suspicions to Deputy Inspector Michael J. Blackwell, who passed the information on to the homicide squad.

Beach was arrested Monday at Baltimore, where he had gone to visit his mother.

Cold Wave Fails To Damage Fruit

Florida's Citrus Crop Comes Through in Good Condition

Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 15 (AP)—The winter's severest cold wave held most of Florida in an icy grip today and only slight moderation was in prospect for tomorrow.

Damage to the state's citrus crop was "inconsequential," said Warren O. Johnson of the Federal State Frost Warning Service at Lakeland.

Because the air was dry, frosts over the state were light. Early reports indicated a probable grower along the lower east coast and in the rich Lake Okechobee region came through with little damage to tender truck crops.

The forecast calls for continued cold weather tonight but with slightly higher temperatures tomorrow morning.

Tallahassee was the coldest spot in the state at dawn when the mercury stood at 19 degrees. Jacksonville had 21, Miami airport 34, Tampa 28, Daytona Beach 24, Orlando airport 26, Lakeland 28, Vero Beach 20, Ocala 21, Sarasota 27.

The thermometer dipped to 33.3 degrees in Miami proper and Miamians, usually clad in summer-light clothing, appeared on the streets bundled to the ears. The low there did not set a record, however. The mercury fell to 27 in 1917.

Schools were closed in several lower east coast counties.

Acute shortages of fuel oil in many Florida cities caused discomfort to some residents. Only a comparatively few citrus growers fired their groves because they wanted to conserve fuel for possible continued cold weather.

Will Get Award

Washington, Jan. 15 (AP)—Louis Niser, New York attorney, called at the White House today to arrange plans for the President to receive the first international inter-faith medallion of the conference of Christians and Jews. He told reporters later the medallion will be awarded at a White House ceremony February 18.

Call Death Murder

Bangkok, Siam, Jan. 15 (AP)—Young King Ananda Mahidol's death in June, 1946, was murder, the government radio announced tonight. The announcement said the gun found beside the body of the monarch in the Royal Palace was not the weapon with which he was shot.

Hearing Is Adjourned

New York, Jan. 15 (AP)—Supreme Court Justice Benedict D. Diceson today adjourned until January 22 hearing on a motion by Elmer Haslett, former city director of airports, to restore him to his post.

Royall Says Renewed Army Draft May Be Alternative to Aid Plan

Statement Is Made Before Committee; Forestall Also Appears

Washington, Jan. 15 (AP)—Secretary of the Army Royall told senators today that the alternative to a European recovery plan may be drafting men for military service.

Royall made the statement to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee today in response to questions from Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich.) and Senator Lodge (R-Mass.).

The Army secretary testified yesterday that unless the recovery plan is accepted, the Army and its budget will have to be "measurably and immediately" increased.

Asked how this could be accomplished, Royall said either through an increase in voluntary enlistments, which he said is doubtful, or "some method of selective service."

If we assume that voluntary enlistments have not produced as many men as necessary, that leaves only the draft, Lodge commented.

Royall replied that this is correct.

In other words, Lodge said, we have the alternative of the European recovery plan or "else going back to the draft."

Royall said this is the "logical conclusion" unless some ways can be found through increased compensation or some other means.

Secretary of Defense Forrestal, meanwhile, told the House Foreign Affairs Committee the objective of the recovery program "is the prevention of war" and should not be construed as "a threat against any nation."

Making his first appearance before a congressional committee on the so-called Marshall Plan for the economic rehabilitation of European nations outside the Soviet orbit, Forrestal said:

"Neither this program nor our national defense expenditures are designed as a threat against any nation nor as an effort to restrain any nation or to dominate any state. In addition, it provides the requirements of its increased demands for gas fuel made by a growing population are chiefly responsible for a situation that is termed acute in some parts of the state."

The Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corp. will be able to provide an adequate supply of gas this winter provided there is no serious breakdown of equipment or unusual shortage of coke or oil.

The report is part of a comprehensive study of the gas situation in the state, which has been underway since last spring. The inability of companies to expand their facilities during the war and immediately afterward to meet the increased demands for gas fuel made by a growing population are chiefly responsible for a situation that is termed acute in some parts of the state.

Not Getting Manpower

Royall agreed with Lodge that enlistments are "not producing the manpower that we need" and added that they "will not over the next few months." Lodge termed this a "very stark prospect."

Vandenberg commented that Royall is "not undertaking to give a red flag" and is not attempting to put the committee under "hypothetical pressures." He is "simply underscoring" the fact that the United States has a "terrific self-interest" in a stable western Europe, Vandenberg added.

The chairman said Royall is "engaged in a military of proposals" because his testimony "favors a course which would 'minimize' militarism."

Vandenberg reviewed Royall's previous statement that to suspend dismantling of German war plants would be "both inadvisable and futile." Royall agreed he took this position because:

1. The plants to be dismantled are not essential to maintenance of German economy and a level contemplated there the next five years.
2. None of the plants being dismantled, except the "tax-end remnants" of three will be sent to Russia, and that the shipping of those to Russia will be completed by April 1.
3. The dismantling of plants other than for Russia are for the benefit of the western allies.

P.S.C. Sees Central Gas Supply Good

Service Is Dependent Upon No Serious Handicaps for Company

New York, Jan. 15 (Special)—In a report released here Wednesday the Public Service Commission finds, after a survey conducted by its investigators, that the Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corporation will be able to provide an adequate supply of gas this winter provided there is no serious breakdown of equipment or unusual shortage of coke or oil.

The inability of companies to expand their facilities during the war and immediately afterward to meet the increased demands for gas fuel made by a growing population are chiefly responsible for a situation that is termed acute in some parts of the state.

Marello Sentenced to 15 Years, His Associate Five in W. Virginia

Charleston, W. Va., Jan. 15 (AP)—Two men convicted here December 4 of conspiracy to kidnap a Charleston woman were sentenced to federal prison terms in U. S. District Court yesterday.

Judge Ben Moore imposed a term of 15 years upon John Marello, 35, of Charleston, and of five years upon John Ferguella, 33, of Kingston, N. Y.

After their conviction, Judge Moore deferred sentence pending an investigation of the men's past records. Since their trials, they have been held at the federal reformatory in Ashland, Ky.

The two men were charged with transporting Ruth Virginia Fitzwater, 24, from Charleston to Kingston, to prevent her appearing as a state witness against Marello in a case in which he was charged with operating a house of prostitution.

Marello denied that he conspired with Ferguella to ply Miss Fitzwater with liquor and have Ferguella drive her out of the state.

The government waived the death penalty at the three-day trial of the two because no actual harm had come to Miss Fitzwater on the trip to New York state.

Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk Gets Letter From Secretary Concerning Permit

Praises Alderman James E. Martin Gets Credit From Mayor for Extension

Operation of the Fairview-Lucas avenue bus route under a temporary permit has been extended until March 20, 1948, by order of the State Public Service Commission, adopted at a meeting of that commission Wednesday in Albany. Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk was informed of the commission's action this morning by letter from Murray G. Tanner, secretary.

The route has been operated under a certificate of public convenience and necessity issued to the Kingston City Transportation Company by the P.S.C. by an order dated September 23, 1947. The certificate was to have expired today, but was extended by the commissioners on petition of the city of Kingston stated in a resolution of the Common Council passed on January 7 and in a second resolution passed by the Council last Tuesday following a public hearing.

The letter stated that the commissioners "determined that the extension of time requested should be granted." Public Service Commissioners Neal Brewster, Maurice C. Burrill, George A. Arkwright, and Spencer B. Eddy were present at the meeting.

Mayor Newkirk said this morning that he was well pleased with the prompt action of the P.S.C. He said much of the credit for obtaining the extension is due to Alderman James E. Martin of the Twelfth Ward, to the Common Council, and to the Kingston City Transportation Corporation for offering no opposition to the extension.

Fuel Oil Problem Bad

Washington, Jan. 15 (AP)—President Truman probably will issue an order today or tomorrow directing rigorous conservation of fuel oil and gasoline by all government agencies, Max W. Ball, director of the Interior Department's oil and gas division, said today. Ball said the petroleum shortage confronting the nation is "more serious" than just an emergency of this winter and may continue four or five years.

Full Scale War Feared

Lake Success, Jan. 15 (AP)—India told the United Nations Security Council today that a full-scale war with Pakistan may develop unless the U.N. takes measures to halt fighting in Kashmir. Delivering the opening speech in support of India's charges against Pakistan, the Moslem dominion, Minister Gopalaswami Ayyangar contended that "there is no government small war going on in Kashmir."

Industrial Accidents Total 787,245 in Year

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 15 (AP)—Industrial accidents in New York last year totaled a record 787,245, almost 80,000 more than in 1942.

The Workmen's Compensation Board said the state-wide total represented an increase of approximately 50 per cent over the 528,467 accidents reported in 1940, the pre-war year. The board said 718,465 accidents were listed in 1942.

Greatest increase was in the Buffalo district where 107,512 industrial accidents were recorded. This was an increase of almost 20,000 over the 1942 figure and a rise of 140 per cent over the comparable 1940 report.

Industrial mishaps in the Syracuse district totaled 101,518, an increase of 15,000 over the previous year. It exceeded the 1940 total by 107 per cent.

Albany and Rochester districts reported new highs of 81,233 and 55,822 respectively.

The New York city district's report of 441,159 accidents showed an increase of more than 18,000 over the 1942 total. However, it was below the totals for 1942, 1943 and 1944.

Planes Search Sea For Missing Vessel

Miami, Fla., Jan. 15 (AP)—A flotilla of planes from the coast guard, augmented by army and navy reserve units, searched the waters south of Miami today for the 30-foot cabin cruiser, Jo Ann, adrift about 20 miles south of Carys Foot reef light with two men aboard.

The men were identified as Eric Larsen, 52, of New York and Miami, and Lawrence Farley, 30, of Mattapoisett, Mass. They had enough food and water for three days but no radio and "possibly little fuel," according to Lt. Comdr. Richard C. Baxter, coast guard operations officer.

The Jo Ann has a white hull and buff deck, making it extremely difficult to spot among the "exceedingly rough" water, Baxter said. Small craft warnings remained up in the area.

The Jo Ann was cast adrift late Tuesday when a tow line from the 88-foot yacht, Coconut, parted in rough seas while en route from Cuba to Miami. The Coconut made port late yesterday.

Child, 3, Is Found Huddled in Snowdrift

New York, Jan. 15 (AP)—Three-year-old Arleen Friedman, missing from her home in Queens for seven hours, was found early today after a search by police, a brace of bloodhounds and about 100 neighbors.

The girl, who wandered off from her home (7364 195th street, Bay-side) about 4 p. m. yesterday while in the care of a maid, was unharmed, but suffering slightly from exposure. A few hours after the girl was missed, an army of neighbors gathered to search two parks near the child's home. Bloodhounds were brought in from Hawthorne,

N. Y., and all Queens radio cars, three emergency squads and New York Police Commissioner Arthur W. Walender joined in the search. The girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murray F. Friedman, was found about 12:30 a. m. in Flushing (near 7523 188th street) by Patrolmen Alfred Gregorvitch and Robert Neergaard of the Jamaica burglary patrol.

Gandhi's Condition Causes Concern to Four Physicians

Leader Is Worried Over New Massacre in Pakistan; Said to Be Weaker

New Delhi, Jan. 15 (AP)—Mahandas K. Gandhi, in the third day of his fast for communal peace in India, was too weak today to attend his usual prayer meeting, and his doctors expressed concern over his loss of weight.

The four physicians attending the aged spiritual leader issued this bulletin: "Today is the third day of Mahatma Gandhi's fast. He is naturally losing weight, weakness has considerably increased. He had to be carried out to the bathroom in an arm chair this morning. His voice is feeble."

"Acetone bodies have appeared in his urine. He is still able to drink plain hot water in sufficient quantities. "We once again appeal to his friends and the public not to seek interviews or darshan." (Darshan means his public appearance, which Hindus consider holy.)

Gandhi last night exhibited deep worry over a new massacre in Muslim Pakistan.

The Indian government said last night that a train of refugees from the Punjab ambushed a train Tuesday and only 750 of the 2,400 non-Muslim passengers were known to have survived the attack.

Later Gandhi, holding his night prayer meeting, referred to this report and told followers, "It distresses me." In a released text of his remarks, the 78-year-old Hindu spiritual leader was quoted:

"How long can the (Indian) union put up with such things? How long can I bank on the patience of the Hindus and Sikhs in spite of my fast?"

"Pakistan has to put a stop to this state of affairs. They must purify their hearts and pledge themselves that they will not rest until Hindus and Sikhs can return and live in safety in Pakistan."

A large crowd of refugees from the Punjab shouted "Let Gandhi die!" and broke up a Sikh peace procession near the Sikh temple in the old city. The procession was to have terminated at Birla House, where Gandhi is staying. Only a handful of the Sikhs reached Birla House, where they were told Gandhi was too ill to see them.

Close associates said this was Gandhi's 15th fast since he first employed the strategy when he was a young lawyer protesting racial discrimination in South Africa.

He rose as usual long before dawn today and after the sun came out moved to the lawn where he reclined in a bed and dictated to a secretary.

Homeless Sikh and Hindu refugees occasionally pass by and shout protests that prayer and fasting is not getting them living quarters while Moslems still occupy comfortable living space in Delhi.

After Alimony Boys

Moscow, Jan. 15 (AP)—The government newspaper Izvestia said today the ministry of justice has taken steps to assure prompt and full payment of alimony by delinquent spouses in Russia. Izvestia said the collegium of the justice ministry had ordered subordinate departments of Russian courts in the Soviet Union and autonomous republics to get decisions in all pending alimony cases within the next 10 days and to make a periodic checkup on them.

In addition, the newspaper reported, the collegium demanded that violators of such court decrees be punished.

Chaplin Now Pays $100
Los Angeles, Jan. 15—Charlie Chaplin's payments for support of Carol Ann Berry, his four-year-old daughter by Joan Berry, now are $100 a week instead of $75. The increase was approved by Superior Judge Orlando H. Rhodes yesterday after the child's guardian cited increased living expenses. Joan Berry now is the wife of Russell C. Seck of Pittsburgh. They had a son last July.

FINDERS OF AUTHORS
Some of the credit which properly goes to successful authors ought to go to the publishers' agents who discovered them. The late Frank Crowninshield, editor of the magazine "Vanity Fair", which ceased publication in 1935, accepted and published the first writing of such writers as Edna St. Vincent Millay, Alexander Woolcott, John Dos Passos, F. Scott Fitzgerald, Claire Boothe Luce and Ogden Nash. The variety of styles and subjects which these authors exhibit show that Crowninshield was not working from a single formula, and that his own likings were as broad. He also introduced Americans to Aldous Huxley, Noel Coward, P. C. Wodehouse and Ferenc Molnar.
Last June Maxwell Perkins died. As literary editor of the Scribner publishing house, he gave many brilliant but previously unknown writers their first chance. His greatest prize, perhaps, was Thomas Wolfe, the sprawling but extraordinarily gifted novelist whose early death was a blow to American literature.
The least that historians of literature could do would be to pay deserved tribute to men like Crowninshield and Perkins.

LIFE BEGINS FOR KINGSTON BABY
What does the future hold for the Model 1948 baby, born this year to Kingston parents? According to Department of Commerce reports and other data, the course of his life is carefully mapped out for him.
School days will begin for him when he is six, after successfully weathering the colds, measles and other minor childhood ills that beset him. Being an average Kingston child, he will continue his studies until he has completed his schooling.
The time will come for him to earn a livelihood. Once settled in his career he will get married. As an average young man in this community, this will take place when he is 26.2 years old. His bride's age will be 22.5. They will have statistically 1.3 children, for Kingston families average 3.3 in size.
Their life expectancy, thanks to advances in medical science is set at 64.4 for him, and 69.5 for her, or about eight years more than their parents had to look forward to in their lives.

SPELLING
The New York State Department of Education, in a recent state-wide survey, discovered that third and fourth year high school students are unable to spell many of the words which they should have known when they left the elementary schools.
The most difficult word in the test turned out to be "develop", with "cordially" next, and "proceed" running close. Evidence shows that one out of every ten students graduates from high school with little knowledge of spelling.
Children who read a great deal are usually good spellers, as they attain the ability to visualize a word on the printed page. It is harder for non-reading children to learn to spell correctly and easily, but it is by no means impossible. Constant drill is the answer. Learning by rote is an outmoded method, and rightly so in some subjects, but it seems to be the only way in which children can be taught to spell quickly and accurately.

STUDY OF SUICIDE
An encyclopedia of suicide is the alluring topic to which a Hungarian professor, Dr. Ferenc Arpad of Budapest, has set himself. He proposes a 10-volume history, discussing the cases and trying to determine the reason for this strange leaving of life. Cleopatra, Hitler, and the recent self-murder of John G. Winant, former ambassador to Great Britain, are all sure to receive attention.
The book will be unquestionably important, but it will be neither a best-seller nor turned into a success in the movies.

SEEING THINGS
"For to admire and for to see, for to be 'old this world so wide,'" was the goal of the

PROFLIGATE PRESENT
Obviously, Harry Truman has no conception of a billion dollars. It is just a big number. Bib numbers are to him preferable to little numbers. Before Truman, it was assumed that Franklin D. Roosevelt was the biggest spender this country had ever known, but compared with Harry Truman, Roosevelt's spending, except in wartime, was moderate.
Let's look at the figures. Roosevelt's spending from 1933 to 1940 ran thus:
1933 $4,325,150,000
1934 6,370,947,000
1935 7,583,424,000
1936 9,068,886,000
1937 8,281,380,000
1938 7,304,287,000
1939 8,755,328,000
1940 9,127,814,000
Then came war expenditures, which reached an all-time high of $100,000,000,000 in 1945. Wars cost lives and money without stint, for defeat means slavery. So we can skip those war years.
Truman has presented his country with four years of expenditures:
1946 $63,714,000,000
1947 27,728,000,000
1948 36,668,000,000
1949 (Projected)
In a word, Truman's peacetime budget runs between three and four times more than Roosevelt's highest peacetime expenditure.
It is true that Truman has to carry the load of the continuing costs of war, interest on the public debt of $256,000,000, cost of veterans, and the cost of keeping an army in all parts of the world. Also, Truman inherits all the costs of Teheran and Yalta, which means, this cold war that Russia is waging against us. But items are hidden in his budget which are unrelated to these costs and which are put in to make the budget high.
Apparently, Truman believes that high government expenditures prevent inflation. He said so. But there is no statistical or clinical evidence that is true. Inflation is worse when the government spends public funds to purchase goods than when competition drives prices down. As a matter of fact, the current high prices are due to government buying, government subsidies, and excessive government exports abroad.
The fixed charges out of the last war are Veterans services and benefits amounting to $6,832,000,000. The interest on the public debt amounts to $5,200,000,000. This $11,832,000,000 is the foundation of all our troubles and ought to give the citizens considerable food for thought. This $11,832,000,000 is more than the total 1940 budget by $2,500,000,000.
In 1940, the national defense cost $1,500,000,000. Then came the war, when expenditures naturally rose. For 1948, the national defense cost $11,700,000,000; for 1949, $11,025,000,000.
Out of his roughly $60,000,000,000 budget these three items take the load:
Public Debt $5,200,000,000
Veterans 6,832,000,000
Armed Forces 10,700,000,000
Total $22,532,000,000
The cost of government is making each individual American poorer every year. The cost of government is working a revolution in American life. It must be cut drastically if we are not to be conquered by our expenditures—a worse conqueror even than war.

That Body of Yours
By James W. Barton, M. D.
PREVENTING COLDS
It is only natural for us to be patiently awaiting a cure for cancer at any stage of its growth. Similarly, we look forward to the day when something may be found to prevent attacks of coronary thrombosis which carry off so many men and women in the prime of life.
What we do not consider a serious matter is the number of cases of the common cold, flu, and other infections of the nose, throat, ear, bronchial tubes and lungs. These diseases are the most important cause of absenteeism, not only among industrial workers but in offices and schoolrooms.
As these diseases start in the nose and throat, sneezing and coughing are the means by which they are transmitted to others. If the organisms which are coughed from the throat or blown from the nose into the surrounding air could be killed before being breathed in by others, then there would be less chance of a cold or other infection getting a hold in a factory, office or schoolroom.
The "Occupational Medicine," Chicago, Dr. Anna M. Baetjer discusses methods of preventing the spread of infection among workers. Paper handkerchiefs may be supplied to employees to be used when coughing, sneezing, or blowing the nose and then be placed immediately into receptacles. To prevent droplet infection (these droplets sometimes remain in the air for nearly half a minute), a distance of a few feet should be allowed between workers who face one another. Oilings of floors is of value in preventing organisms which settle to the floor from rising again in the form of dust. Proper sanitation in the preparation and serving of food is essential.
"Experiments have shown that neither irradiation with ultraviolet light, nor the addition of vitamins to the diet will increase resistance of industrial workers to infection of the nose, throat, and chest." Measures to protect against the chilling of the body are important.
As the most effective means of preventing the spread of infection is preventing organisms getting into the surrounding air, the use of paper handkerchiefs—burned immediately after being used—should be the simplest method of preventing the spread of colds and other respiratory infections in industry.

tramp in Kipling's Sestina, and he made a pretty good job of it. But in some important particulars which were not his fault, he fell short.
Television, for instance, this is one of the most modern scientific miracles, which, like many other inventions, was regarded not long ago as little more than a curiosity, and is only now beginning to come to its possibilities.
The main trouble with Communists seems to be that they don't get around and see how other people live.
Walter Lippmann says the Russians have lost a cold war. Now it seems in order to make it warm for them.
Sooner or later Henry Wallace may just naturally run out on himself.

Close Ups
Henry Wallace keeps Harry Truman, backed into the far-left corner where both candidates are fighting under a Red banner.
The principal difference lies in the fact that Truman's Marxism is the American variety, while Wallace's carries the taint of Moscow. A bit of power jealousy in this intra-mural match.
There is, however, another difference, as regards the men, themselves: Wallace believes in his Marxism, while Truman appears only to be mouthing a speech written for him by planners who think they know how to get votes. I do not believe Truman is sincere, though Senator Taft rendered him the dubious compliment of conceding his sincerity.
Truman's message to Congress, as Taft said, dug up all the old New Deal ghosts of Socialism. The message was not flattering to American intelligence. It was clearly political hogwash.
There was a time some months ago when the Missourian was reciting to the small town American type and it was a refreshing prospect, for nearly all small town American would clean out the alien ideology and intrigue in our government.
But Wallace got fired and ran crying to Europe, then back across the United States, threatening to take the Marxists out of the Democratic Party. That drove Truman's ship of state hard a port.
Thanks to Wallace
Now that Wallace has gone and done it, Truman tries to heal the party split by crawling before the radicals.
The double billing of the Marxist program promises to render America a distinct service. For the first time in 16 years it almost assures us a conservative opposition candidate, which would give the voters a choice at long last.
Conservative Democrats no doubt would like to nominate Senator Byrd, but they will have to stand by Truman.
This leaves the Republicans a wide open field. They can nominate an uncompromising candidate such as Senator Bricker or General MacArthur, or Taft if he is willing to drop his compromises, such as his advocacy of a Fair

Caught in a Tight Labor Market
Washington, Jan. 15—It appears to be so easy to propagandize America. The official story as given to the people is swallowed, and there is very little dissent.
Thus, with a nonchalance that is characteristic of the mention of billions of dollars these days, President Truman offers a $40,000,000,000 budget for the coming fiscal year, and then says 79 per cent of the proposed expenditures "reflect the costs of war, the effect of war and our efforts to prevent a future war."
Then with the same self-assurance that billions will be forthcoming for almost any benevolent purpose, the President says that "only 21 per cent"—which means $8,000,000,000—finances the "broad areas" of social welfare, housing, education, research, agriculture, natural resources, general administration, etc.
An item of eight billions may look inconsequential to President Truman, but it is more than the federal government collected in 1941, and America didn't really have difficulty in 1941 in surviving without the luxuries included in the "only 21 per cent" category.
Most important, of course, is that the budget message glosses over what has happened to unemployment and the parasites who feed at the public trough. Under cloak of "national defense," many employees of government who should have been eliminated from the payroll are still there. Mr. Truman's message, prepared for him no doubt by the budget bureau, mentions this telltale fact: "About 40 per cent of all federal civilian employees will be engaged in defense activities" in the fiscal year 1949-49.
It is conceded, moreover, that an expenditure of about $3,000,000,000 will be used "to pay civilian workers engaged in industrial, supply, maintenance, and administrative activities, overseas and in the United States, on defense programs."
There were approximately 2,000,000 persons on the federal civilian payroll in 1947 according to latest available figures so the foregoing means that about 800,000 persons are now included on government jobs as "defense" employees.
This is something, certainly, for congressional leaders to explore, but the $3,000,000,000 isn't the only item that needs explanation. Why is the federal government spending $11,000,000,000 for aid to Europe, and can no economies be made? The President's message gives the impression that the spending must go on and that amounts for the next fiscal year must be increased over the preceding one.
The biggest items of all—a total of about $18,000,000,000—are national defense and aid to Europe, and these two things are closely related to the conduct of our foreign policy. President Truman has virtually abdicated that function and delegated it to the State Department, where secrecy is like it was in wartime. Public knowledge of what transpires in relations with Russia is limited. If there were a better understanding with Russia without retirement to America's position in the post-war world, it would be difficult to glean any such idea from the information available.
The whole atmosphere here is colored by a feeling of the inevitability of war with Russia. Officials deny any such contingency will occur in the immediate future. Yet the campaign to introduce a military draft of the youth of the country and the spending of more and more billions for defense and for political support of countries in Europe are all based on fear of a war with Russia.
So the realistic truth is that America is spending about half its budget of $40,000,000,000 largely on account of a fear of war with Russia—a confession that America can no longer rely on diplomacy and peace and must prepare for war or the coercion of Russia by economic or physical force. If war is not in the offing, then much of the expenditure is wasteful. As it is, the combination of a war psychosis and political bureaucracy is casting the expense of war more than is necessary for either defense or the prevention of war.

Today in Washington
Federal Propaganda, Taken Quietly by Citizens, Proves Ease of Spending Billions
By DAVID LAWRENCE
Washington, Jan. 15—It appears to be so easy to propagandize America. The official story as given to the people is swallowed, and there is very little dissent.
Thus, with a nonchalance that is characteristic of the mention of billions of dollars these days, President Truman offers a $40,000,000,000 budget for the coming fiscal year, and then says 79 per cent of the proposed expenditures "reflect the costs of war, the effect of war and our efforts to prevent a future war."
Then with the same self-assurance that billions will be forthcoming for almost any benevolent purpose, the President says that "only 21 per cent"—which means $8,000,000,000—finances the "broad areas" of social welfare, housing, education, research, agriculture, natural resources, general administration, etc.
An item of eight billions may look inconsequential to President Truman, but it is more than the federal government collected in 1941, and America didn't really have difficulty in 1941 in surviving without the luxuries included in the "only 21 per cent" category.
Most important, of course, is that the budget message glosses over what has happened to unemployment and the parasites who feed at the public trough. Under cloak of "national defense," many employees of government who should have been eliminated from the payroll are still there. Mr. Truman's message, prepared for him no doubt by the budget bureau, mentions this telltale fact: "About 40 per cent of all federal civilian employees will be engaged in defense activities" in the fiscal year 1949-49.

Hartley Says Law Will Work Against James C. Petrillo

Washington, Jan. 15. (AP)—Rep. Hartley (R-N.J.) declared today that even if the Lea Act won't work against James C. Petrillo, "I'm satisfied that the Taft-Hartley Act will."

Congress passed the Lea Act expressly to prevent Petrillo from requiring radio stations to employ more members of his American Federation of Musicians than the stations say they need.

Federal Judge J. Walter LaRue acquitted Petrillo in Chicago yesterday of a charge that he violated the act by trying to force a radio station to hire three extra phonograph record librarians.

Petrillo's lawyer, Daniel Carmel, said the decision means that "the Lea Act is dead."

Hartley commented to newsmen today:

"If the Lea Act isn't adequate to prevent featherbedding and the Taft-Hartley Act isn't clear enough for radio stations to use it for a test, then we need something to clarify the situation." He said this might take the form of an amendment making unions liable under anti-trust laws.

Hartley said, however, that he thinks the new labor act which bears his name and that of Senator Taft (R-Ohio) is broad enough to cover the musicians' dispute.

One section of the Taft-Hartley Act says it is an unfair labor practice for a union to make an employer pay, or try to make him pay, for services which are not performed or not to be performed.

As the House Labor Committee Hartley heads began its third day of hearing radio industry witnesses on their complaints against practices by Petrillo, Hartley told newsmen:

"The obvious reluctance of witnesses appearing on behalf of all these industries—radio, phonograph and television—to suggest an adequate method of dealing with Petrillo is striking evidence of their fear of his vast authority," he said.

One of yesterday's witnesses, J. N. Bailey, executive director of the F.M. Association representing 245 frequency modulation broadcasters and manufacturers, testified there is "fear" in the radio industry, but said, "I can't quite put my finger on it."

Edwin H. Armstrong of Columbia University, inventor of the F.M. system, was called as the first witness at today's session (10 a. m.).

NEW HURLEY

New Hurley, Jan. 15.—The Ladies Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. John W. Tyse last Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Gerow Schoonmaker, president, presided. Mrs. Myra Dolan reported that the proceeds from the Everyday and Christmas cards had amounted to $108.24. One new member, Mrs. Germain Smith, was gained at this meeting. Nine members were present at the meeting. Refreshments were served by the hostess and a social time was enjoyed. The February meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Clarence Spencer.

The regular monthly meeting of the Missionary Society was held last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clarence Spencer with Mrs. Wilbur J. VanWyck as the leader for the afternoon on the subject "Church Women Build for Peace." Readings were given by Mrs. Tyse, Mrs. Burton Ward and Mrs. Edna VanWyck. After the program a business meeting was held in charge of Mrs. John W. Tyse, president. Plans were made for an all day sewing meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Gerow Schoonmaker on February 11. Mrs. Charles Jenkins and Mrs. Wilbur J. VanWyck will act as a sewing committee and would appreciate any materials received. Fourteen members and one visitor were present at the meeting. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the hostess and a social time was enjoyed.

A student from the New Brunswick Seminary preached in the New Hurley Church last Sunday morning and the Rev. John W. Tyse administered communion in the Walkhill Reformed Church.

The Class of Orange will meet in special session in the Shawangunk Reformed Church Thursday afternoon of this week at 2 p. m. to consider the dissolution of pastoral relations between the Rev. Lester H. Alberts and the Shawangunk Church. An elder delegate and the Rev. Mr. Tyse will attend.

The Sunday school will have its third monthly collection of meal coin boxes for the feeding of overseas children next Sunday morning. Four bags of clothing and gifts have been sent to Church World Service.

The Ladies Aid Society is distributing holiday coin cards, proceeds of which will be added to the organ fund.

Choir rehearsal will be held at the parsonage on Thursday evening of this week at 8 o'clock and on Thursday, January 22, it will be at the home of Gerow Schoonmaker.

The men of the church will have charge of a Lincoln Day Supper at the Church Hall, February 12. Valentine Garrison will act as chairman.

Sunday evening Union Lenten services will be held again this year. The first service will be held in the New Hurley Church.

Marriages may be made in heaven but it takes some real down-to-earth planning for the wedding itself to be just so.

Start by deciding on the type of ceremony you prefer—and can afford. Once this is settled, you can start preparing the proper clothes.

For the informal wedding, you will appear in a pastel dressmaker suit or afternoon dress with matching accessories and appropriate hat.

For the semi-formal wedding, choose a wedding dress in white, off-white or pastel with a short veil and no train. Gloves are optional.

The formal wedding demands floor-length white or ivory with a long train and veil. Here you will carry a bouquet of white flowers or a prayer book.

In every case, the wedding procession revolves around the bride's costume. The clothes worn by the bridal party as well as the guests are selected to harmonize with the bride's.

How does the groom dress?—the attendants? Who stands where on the receiving line? How are the invitations handled? See our Reader Service booklet No. 204 for complete details on your wedding from the engagement to the wedding supper.

Textiles Increase

In the past ten years American per capita annual use of textiles has risen from about 33 pounds to about 45 pounds.

Sunday evening, February 15, at 8 o'clock.

The Rev. and Mrs. John W. Tyse and family spent Saturday at the home of Mrs. Tyse's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Simpson at Accord.

20 Are Believed Dead

Parent, Que., Jan. 15. (AP)—Unofficial estimates of the dead ran as high as 20 today as rescue workers and passengers continued to pull bodies from the wreckage of two westbound passenger trains near Wykes far up in Quebec's frozen northland. At least nine persons were known to be dead and 55 injured. There was difficulty in identifying the dead as grimy crews worked in 35-below-zero weather. No statement has been issued yet as to cause of the accident.

Trying a new restaurant for the first time, Lord Droopingjaw glanced over at a corner table and saw a man seated there eating. With a small carrot stuck in his ear. With admirable restraint, his lordship ignored it. But every day he came thereafter the same man sat at the same table with a carrot in his ear.

One day, after a month passed, his lordship glanced over and saw the man now had a stalk of celery stuck in his ear. This was too much. His lordship strode over to the man's table.

Lord—I say, every day I've been here you've had a carrot in your ear. Now you have celery. Would you mind telling me why?

Man (smiling)—Not at all. No carrots!

Two very young men were arguing about their importance in the world. Each thought himself more important than the other.

"OK, you're so important, are you in Who's Who?" one challenged the other. "Because I am. Betcha two bits I'm in Who's Who."

The other admitted he was not in Who's Who and demanded proof of his friend's claim. Who's Who was immediately consulted. The claimant to fame pointed triumphantly to one biography.

"Yeh, but that's your father," snorted the other indignantly. "Sure, it's my father, but see there where it says 'two daughters and one son'?" Well, I'm the one son.

America Reopens African Airfield

Strategy of More Strength in Mediterranean Is Reason

Washington, Jan. 15 (AP)—The reopening of a wartime American air field in North Africa fits into a strategy of expanding American strength in the turbulent Mediterranean area where Greece, Palestine and Trieste are focal spots for trouble.

The field, Mellaha airport, near Tripoli, is calculated to increase substantially the ability of the air force to operate the North African ferry route to the Middle East and keep American supplies and personnel moving in and out of the troubled areas.

Beyond that, however, the move shaped up as the latest in a series symbolizing the intention of the United States to make good its commitments and to protect its interests in that part of the world which probably is getting more official attention here than any other.

The trend of developing policy was disclosed in a State Department report last night on the status of the North African air field since the war ended.

Two years ago, said Press Officer Michael J. McDermott, the State Department began negotiations with the British for military rights at Mellaha. Britain administered the former Italian colony of Libya, where the field is situated.

In June last year, the army decided to close down the Air Transport Command facilities there, so the whole question was dropped.

Then, in November, the army decided to reactivate the North Africa ferry route. McDermott related, and the State Department was asked again to take up the question of rights with the British. This it did, obtaining permission to reopen the field last month.

American air force headquarters in Wiesbaden, Germany, announced yesterday that the field was being put into service again with a small maintenance staff.

Such significance as the incident holds was drawn by diplomatic authorities from other recent events affecting the same area.

These include the dispatch of 1,000 Marines with landing equipment to bring to full strength the Marine complement in the American Mediterranean Fleet; aid in enlarging the Greek armed forces and other extensive preparations for a spring offensive against the guerrillas; fleet maneuvers in the Mediterranean; and assignment of four big fleet type submarines to Turkey.

M.J.M. Forum Is In International Discussion League

The M.J.M. School forum has been elected a member of the Junior Town Meeting League, the international organization which fosters discussions of current affairs, according to a communication received by Miss Mary Kelly from C. L. McKelvie, secretary.

The purpose of the League is to (1) promote the cause of free discussion (2) encourage use of town meeting methods and (3) develop cooperation among organizations interested in education, democracy and good citizenship.

This evening at 8 o'clock a representative group of M.J.M. pupils will discuss "Education" according to Warren A. Russell who will act as moderator. Those participating include: Myra Epstein, Elaine Solomon, Brooks Vogt, Milton Young, Maury Newman, Ward Ingalsbe.

Missionaries Are Evacuated From Civil Fighting Area

Transport Planes Sped the Evacuation of Missionaries from this Communist-Menaced Center Today

Chengchow, China, Jan. 15 (AP)—Transport planes sped the evacuation of missionaries from this Communist-menaced center today.

Civil war fighting, however, hid the fate of an unknown number of Americans and others who had sought safety in Loehokow to the southwest.

Four have been killed in recent days—three of them slain by armed Chinese who shouted "Americans must die!" and the fourth was fatally injured by a grenade explosion in Communist-government fighting.

As missionaries and other foreigners gathered at the busy Chengchow Airport, one American said the spread of civil warfare and of anti-foreign sentiment had convinced him: "It's time for us all to get out of China again."

"There are more than 500 in danger spots, mission leaders said."

A missionary for many years, he lived through the 1927 flareup of anti-foreign violence, when 6,000 endangered missionaries were evacuated from Central China.

Communists were reported within three miles of Chengchow, but this call city 300 miles north of Hankow is strongly defended.

Loehokow, 200 miles northwest of Hankow, was at last reports under increasingly heavy Communist pressure, and evacuation-plane pilots said they could not land there without ground communications.

Loehokow is near the scene of the three missionary murders January 7. Assaults who Chinese witnesses said appeared to be Communists stopped a bus and shot down Miss Martha J. Anderson, Minneapolis, Miss Esther Victoria Nordlund, Chicago, and Dr. Alexis Friedrich Berg, Helsinki, Finland.

The fourth death, reported Tuesday, was that of American Missionary Miss Elizabeth Degarmo, 60, Wauteta, Neb. It was believed an accidental result of Communist-government fighting.

Commercial planes are taking out some of the Chengchow evacuees, and the Lutheran Mission Plane "St. Paul," piloted by Capt. Robert Conrath (Hollywood, Calif.) is beginning the 12-trip job of removing a 100-bed hospital. Equipment as well as the staff of the big Southern Baptist Hospital here will be flown to Hankow for rail shipment to the safety of Kweilin, 450 miles farther southwest.

The staff of a Lutheran hospital at Koshan, midway between Chengchow and Hankow, escaped after government troops beat back Chinese Communists who had reached the hedges surrounding the institution. Residences and hospital building were badly damaged by rifle and artillery fire in the three-day battle. Dr. Nathaniel Fedde of Brooklyn, N. Y., hospital director, reported.

Never Told Cause

Seattle, Jan. 15 (AP)—Mrs. Bertha Emminger, 69, who was trapped for six days and nights with one foot wedged under a piano, died yesterday. She was found in her home by neighbors last Thursday and never recovered sufficient strength to tell how she became trapped. She lived alone.

Smiley to be Arraigned On Citizenship Charges

Los Angeles, Jan. 15 (AP)—Allen Smiley, companion of Benjamin ("Bugsy") Siegel the night the racketeer was slain in Beverly Hills last June, will be arraigned next week on charges that he twice falsely claimed American citizenship. Smiley, born Aaron Snehoff in Russia, is free on $5,000 bond pending deportation.

A Federal Grand Jury returned an indictment yesterday accusing the 40-year-old Smiley of representing himself as American-born when arrested after a 1945 gambling raid and again when he was booked in the Siegel slaying investigation.

Maximum penalty on the two counts is $2,000 fine, 10 years in prison, or both.

A warrant for his deportation to Canada was received from Washington, D. C., by Immigration Service officials yesterday. They said its execution will be delayed pending outcome of the criminal case.

The government charges Smiley entered the United States illegally and never became a citizen.

P.C.A. Is Expected To Approve Wallace

Chicago, Jan. 15 (AP)—Endorsement of the presidential candidacy of Henry A. Wallace and preliminary formation of his third party campaign strategy are expected at the second annual convention of the Progressive Citizens of America here Saturday and Sunday.

More than 500 Progressive delegates from 26 states will hear the former Democratic vice president outline his "peace and prosperity" platform in a convention speech late Saturday afternoon. (About 5 p. m. E.S.T.).

P. C. A. organized a little over a year ago to "unite all progressive men and women" regardless of race, creed, color, national origin or political affiliation. It held its first convention in New York in December, 1946.

New York, Jan. 15 (AP)—Complete reorganization and centralization of the city's licensing and inspection systems, to eliminate confusion and overlapping, is recommended by the Citizens Budget Commission. The proposal was made by the commission yesterday in the first complete section released to the public of its nine-month study of the municipal government. The commission, which surveyed five departments at Mayor William O'Dwyer's request, handed him on Monday a 300-page report saying $30,000,000 a year could be saved in the administration of the police, fire, sanitation, public works and correction departments.

DuBois Renamed To Cornell Office; Chief Is Honored

Kenneth DuBois was re-elected president of the Cornell Hose Company as were all other officers during the annual meeting held Tuesday night at the fire house on Abel street.

Following the business end of the meeting, the members adjourned to Judie's Restaurant on Albany avenue for dinner.

Other Officers

Other officers re-elected last night were John Maley, vice-president; Harry Kingsburgh, foreman; Edward DuBois, first assistant foreman; Bob Stone, second assistant foreman; Herbert Wolf, financial secretary and treasurer; Martin Hagle, recording secretary; Daniel Barnhart, custodian; Captain Edward H. Albrecht, trustee.

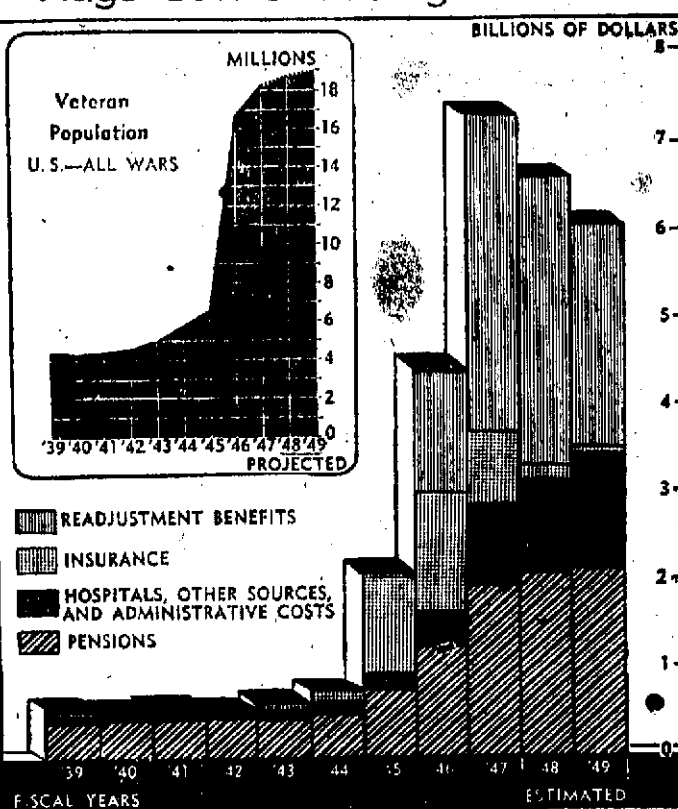

John Maley also was named as delegate to the Kingston Fire Fund Association while Walter Bruchholz was appointed as delegate to the State Firemen's Association.

Chief Murphy Honored

During the dinner party following Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy was honored for his 40 years of service with the Kingston Fire Department and later lauded members of the Cornell Hose Company for their active interest in fireman affairs. Chief Murphy personally extended his thanks for the company's help in past years.

Other guests attending were Deputy Chief Harold A. Sanford, Deputy Chief James Brett and Richard Rieley, fire commissioner. Captain Albrecht, who has been assigned to the Cornell station on Abel street for nearly 40 years, also told of his experiences. Joseph Epstein was master of ceremonies during the party.

Huge Cost of Aiding Veterans

The tremendous cost of the veterans' program is shown on this chart, with the smaller chart tracing the growth of veteran population from all wars. The 1949 budget calls for expenditures of $6,102,000,000 for veterans' services and benefits, as analyzed above.

Baked Custards

Baked custard recipes often call for scalded milk. This scalding is not necessary and will not affect the texture or taste of the custard; it is recommended to speed the baking since custard is always baked at a fairly low temperature in a pan of hot water.

Training School On Care of Floors

Will Be Held Friday in Legion Building at New Paltz

A second training school on care of floors will be held for home management leaders from 23 Home Bureau units in the American Legion Hall, New Paltz, Friday at 10 a. m.

Miss Leola Cooper, household management specialist from the New York State College of Home Economics, Ithaca, will be in charge. She will work with the leaders on the care and finish of wood floors.

New types of wood floor finishes will be discussed and several will be demonstrated on wood samples. Other work by the leaders is planned on the care of rugs and they will practice shampooing small rugs as part of their lesson.

Home Bureau units having this project are asked to make certain that everyone knows when the lesson is to be given locally.

Leaders expected to attend this training school include: Mrs. H. M. Eppes, Accord; Mrs. William Cotton, Mrs. Harry Hound, Cortland; Mrs. William Litchford, Ellenville; Mrs. Anna Donahue, Forest Glen; Mrs. Carlton Beach, High Falls; Mrs. Ann Sandy, Highland; Mrs. Charles Ashley, Hurley; Mrs. Robert Torrens, Hurley; Mrs. Michael Martin, Kingston; Mrs. E. Vandemark, Mrs. C. Christiana, Kripplush; Mrs. Paul Todaro, Milton; Mrs. Roy Jensen, Modena; Mrs. Dale Sutherland, New Paltz; Miss M. McSpirt, Plank Road Community; Mrs. Robert Barr, Mrs. Albert Jacques, Flattekill; Mrs. Ino Spindler, Rosendale; Mrs. Albert Hoyt, Tilton; Mrs. John Sloan, Walkkill; Mrs. Hannah Dock, Miss Neva Shultz, Woodstock.

Miss Therese Wood, food and nutrition specialist at Cornell University, will spend Friday, January 16, in Ulster county to help 28 local leaders at an all day meeting from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. in planning "Low Cost Family Meals" at the American Legion Hall in New Paltz.

Miss Wood will demonstrate and prepare foods which are inexpensive but yet high in Vitamin D, Riboflavin and Nicotin. Of special interest to homemakers with families of varying ages, Miss Wood will devote time in helping leaders with menus to meet this common problem.

Local leaders as a result will have classes in their own units in March and April. Leaders from Ellenville, Forest Glen, Highland, Hurley, Kerhonkson, Kingston, Kripplush, Lake Katrine, Lomontville, Milton, Modena, New Paltz, Plank Road Community, Flattekill, Sawkill and Woodstock units are expected.

On previous visits to the county, Miss Wood has given local leaders information on preparing foods rich in Vitamin A, thiamin and Vitamin C and also considered the cost and the availability of these foods.

KERHONKSON

Kerhonkson, Jan. 14—Owing to an epidemic of various illnesses in this area, Dr. A. M. Feldshuh, school physician, has closed the Kerhonkson Public School until Monday morning, January 19. Althon U. Farnsworth, supervising principal, announced today.

Dr. Feldshuh's action followed the announcement that approximately 100 children, or 25 per cent of the school's total enrollment, were absent from school Monday morning.

The epidemic, Principal Farnsworth reported, consists chiefly of mumps but there are also several cases of chicken pox, measles and grippe in the school.

All parents are asked to cooperate with school authorities by keeping their children away from congested meeting places and also by seeing that the students have plenty of rest in order to combat the epidemic.

The school shutdown will not affect the regular N.O.S.U. Basketball League, it was said, as Kerhonkson has a bye in this week's place. Livingston Manor will play at the Kerhonkson gym on Tuesday, January 20.

Buttermilk may be used interchangeably with sour milk—if it is not too old—in most recipes.

Bar Turtles

Before prohibition in the United States, the eating of turtles was associated with liquor consumption and the market was only partially regained after repeal.

Dr. Damon Boynton of the Cornell University Department of pathology said in a speech prepared for the 93rd annual convention of the New York State Horticultural Society that over-all fertilizer prospects were better than last year.

Prof. N. B. Hoffman of the same Cornell Department discussed in a prepared speech the merits of Dinitro compounds and App-L-Set and auxin preparation

Fruit Growers Are Told Fertilizer Prospects Improve

Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 15 (AP)—Fruit growers heard today that granular nitrogen fertilizer probably would be in sufficient future supply to eliminate the need of buying special machinery to distribute anhydrous or liquid nitrogen.

Boynton reported the supply of granular nitrogen was short now and probably would remain so for six months because of "an unprecedented demand for fertilizer in this country, abnormal shipments of nitrogen abroad" and a lack of plant facilities.

"The over-all nitrogen prospects are better than they were last year because facilities for producing granular ammonium nitrate will be increased considerably during the year," he said, adding: "The future supply of these granular materials looks bright enough so that it will probably not pay our fruit growers to equip themselves with special machinery to distribute anhydrous or liquid nitrogen."

Boynton said that Ammonia gas dispensed behind cultivation chisels—widely used in the semi-arid west—would be useful under New York conditions only in peach or cherry orchards or in vineyards where clean cultivation is practiced during growing season.

He said that ammonium nitrate solution brought into fruit areas by the Grange League Federation could be used in orchards if "spread in the proper concentration."

The G.L.F. brought several carloads of the product into the state's fruit belts last year. Boynton said at least two cars were planned this spring.

Prof. James E. Dewey of Cornell told the convention last night that parathion, a recently-developed insecticide, might replace DDT in the control of some insects.

He said its use might be recommended "in another year or so, but not until we know more about it."

Student Is Killed

Congers, N. Y., Jan. 15 (AP)—Bryce W. Witt, 17-year-old student at the Columbia University School of Engineering, was killed today while boarding a 6:49 a. m. train, police said, but his body was not found until an hour later when it was located on the tracks 300 yards from the station. Clarks-town Township Chief of Police Walter Liebert said no witnesses had been found who saw Witt die. His body was discovered 300 yards from the West Shore railroad station after a station agent noticed his gloves and brief case on the track, Liebert said.

Need for Strength In Well Informed Reserves Stressed

Former Army Officers Hear About Program to Keep Them Posted on World Plight

Unsettled conditions in the world today that could lead to the United States becoming involved in war, and the need for former army men to be organized and fully informed on all modern material and techniques forming the basis for subjects discussed Wednesday night at a meeting of reserve officers in the New York State Armory.

More than 60 reserve officers from Ulster county attended the session, like meetings of which are held by other units of Composite Group 726 with branches in four surrounding counties. It is the intention to organize a permanent Ulster chapter of reserve officers to keep abreast of world conditions and military activities.

Last night's meeting was presided over by Lt. Col. H. Lyne, a lieutenant colonel in World War 2, who outlined the program and introduced the speakers.

Colonel Lyons of Poughkeepsie, commander of Group 726, went into details about organizing the permanent Ulster chapter and the importance it would play in keeping the reserve men informed.

Colonel Olds, regular army officer from the headquarters on Church street, New York city, explained the duties of instructors and the plans underway by the army to furnish material for study and movie films for demonstration.

Allan Hainstein, another colonel in World War 2, went into detail on world conditions and the necessity for keeping prepared with a strong standing army, and stressed the importance of the transportation corps and steps being taken to organize this vital unit.

Ernest A. Steuding, superintendent of the Kingston Board of Public Works, who served in World War 2 as a lieutenant colonel in field artillery, presented a bulletin on organization of the local chapter of reserve officers, and added his sentiments to those of other speakers that the formation of a county unit was imperative.

The next meeting of the reserve officers is scheduled for February 12.

Josephus Daniels Dies

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 15 (AP)—Josephus Daniels, Raleigh publisher, died at 1:25 p. m. today. He was 85 years old.

Good for Soup

The heart, gizzard, neck and bone back of a chicken may be used to make stock for soups, creamed dishes, gravies. They should be thoroughly washed in cold water and then simmered in a covered saucepan with a few cups of water, a stalk of celery, a small onion and a carrot.

Local Death Record

Mrs. Jane Britton Rathgeber, wife of Walter Rathgeber, of 121 Franklin street in this city, died suddenly in Troy at an early hour this morning. Funeral arrangements will be announced.

Funeral services for Mrs. Antoinette Hasbrouck Davis, widow of DePuy Davis, who died Monday, were held Wednesday at the Kukuk Memorial Funeral Home, 167 Tremper avenue. The Rev. J. Dean Dykstra, pastor of the Fair Street Reformed Church, officiated. Burial was in Rosendale Plains Cemetery. Preceding the services, members of Vanderlyn Council No. 41, Daughters of America, held ritualistic services at the funeral home.

Funeral services for Mrs. Myra Bogart of 136 Prospect street, who died suddenly Sunday while attending church, were held at the W. N. Conner Funeral Home at 2 p. m. Wednesday. The Rev. William R. Peckham, pastor of the Clinton Avenue Methodist Church, officiated. Many relatives and friends attended and members of the Mispah class of the Sunday School and of the Daughters of America, Vanderlyn Council No. 41, attended the service in a body. There were many floral pieces banked about the casket. Burial was in the family plot in the Wilwycck Cemetery where the Rev. Mr. Peckham conducted the final committal rites at the grave.

William Klein of 29 Madden street died here today after a short illness. Mr. Klein was born in Germany and had been a mechanic for the Kingston Transportation Co., until his retirement a few years ago. He was a member of the Workman's Circle and Beneficent Association. Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Edward Brodhead, Mrs. Andrew Schiblski, Mrs. George McDonough of Kingston and Mrs. Edward Smith of New York; a son, Albert Klein of Staten Island; six grandchildren and several great-grandchildren. Funeral services were held from the Henry J. Bruck Funeral Home, 27 Smith avenue, Saturday at 2:30 p. m. Burial will be in St. Peter's Cemetery.

Ellenville, Jan. 15 — Funeral services for Mrs. Alberta Doolittle Roby were held at the Pulling Funeral Home Saturday at 2 p. m., with the Rev. J. Elmer Cates of the Methodist Church officiating. Burial took place in the Fairkill Cemetery. Mrs. Roby, 33, died early Wednesday morning, December 17, at her home at 30 West 99th street, New York. She was born at Lake Katrine September 8, 1914, the daughter of George H. and Mary Bogart Doolittle. She was married to Meyer Roby in Mexico on November 11, 1946. Mrs. Roby formerly attended Ellenville High School and the Douglas Park Hospital, Chicago, Ill., and was a nurse. She was a member of the Ellenville Methodist Church and also of the Junior choir of that church. Besides her husband she is survived by her father, George H. Doolittle, and step-mother of Stone Ridge, and a sister, Mrs. Arthur Terwilliger, two aunts, Mrs. Roy Geislin and Mrs. Francis Bishop; and several nieces and nephews, all of Ellenville. Bearers were Roy Griffin, Arthur Terwilliger, Harold Booth and Sidney Delaney.

DIED

BETTS—Suddenly at Utica, N. Y., January 13, 1948, Clara Elizabeth Walker, widow of David C. Betts.

Entrusted to the care of the Kukuk Memorial Funeral Home, 167 Tremper avenue where private funeral services will be held on Friday. Interment in Wilwycck Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home Thursday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock. Kindly omit flowers.

DOUGLAS—John J. on Tuesday, January 13, 1948, at Kingston, N. Y., beloved husband of Rose Douglas, nee Wood; father of Mrs. Lamont Gedney, Mrs. George Duffy, Mrs. Edward Corcoran, John P. and William Douglas; brother of Mrs. John Robinson, Mrs. Helen McDermott, Mrs. Charles Chase, Mrs. Maurice Van Lear and Charles R. Douglas.

Funeral Saturday, January 17, from the late residence, 459 Washington avenue, at 9 a. m., thence to St. Joseph's Church, where a high Mass of requiem will be offered at 9:30 a. m., for the repose of his soul. Interment in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Attention Executor Hose Company and the Ladies' Auxiliary. All members of the above organizations are urgently requested to assemble at the fire house on Hurley avenue, Thursday evening, January 15 at 8 p. m. to proceed in a body to the house of our late brother John J. Douglas at 459 Washington avenue to pay our respects.

Signed WILLIAM B. MARTIN, MRS. WILLIAM B. FLEUGH

KLEIN—William, on January 15, 1948, at Kingston, N. Y., beloved husband of the late Amelia Klein, nee Kraus, father of Mrs. Edward Brodhead, Mrs. Andrew Schiblski, Mrs. Edward Smith, Mrs. George McDonough and Albert Klein.

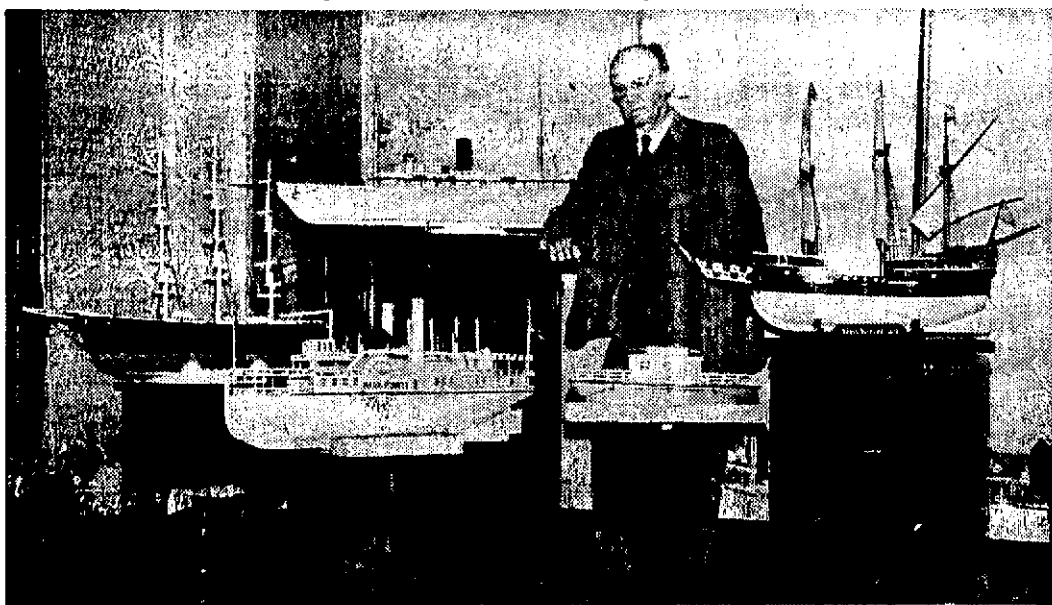

Funeral from the Henry J. Bruck Funeral Home, 27 Smith avenue, Kingston, N. Y., Saturday, January 17, at 2:30 p. m. Interment in St. Peter's Cemetery.

LONG—James S., on January 9, 1948, at New York city, beloved brother of Mrs. Harland Thomas and John H. Long.

Funeral Friday, January 16, at 9 a. m. from the Henry J. Bruck Funeral Home, 27 Smith Ave., Kingston, thence to St. Peter's Church, where a high Mass of requiem will be offered at 9:30 a. m., for the repose of his soul. Interment in St. Peter's Cemetery. Friends may call Thursday afternoon or evening.

RATHGEBER—Suddenly at Troy, New York, January 15, 1948, Jane Britton, wife of Walter Rathgeber of 121 Franklin street, Kingston. Notices of funeral later.

St. Remy Man and Hobby Products

Wallace Terpening of New Salem has an interesting hobby, one which has kept him occupied in this line since 1935, and some of his works are pictured above. Although he specializes in wooden ships he has reached out in other fields and has constructed miniature refrigerators and is now busily engaged in building a steam engine of his own design in model size.

Pictured above are some of his creations which include the Flying Cloud which took 350 hours to build; the Mary Powell, his first undertaking in 1935 which he took from a picture appearing in the Ulster County Gazette loaned to him by Sam Stern, and which took him 400 hours to build; the Eddyville and was married to the former Miss Laura Kidney of Ellenville in 1900. (Freeman Photo)

Shokan, Jan. 15—Paul Hahn, Jr., who has been boarding for some time in Ashokan, is again employed at the Edward Wieder-spiel farm on the Mountain road.

Charles Personous, former Shokan boy, is driving one of the Neede's Express trucks in Kingston.

Mrs. Theodore Carlson of Brook-lyn came here by bus Tuesday to spend a few days with her son, Harold, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gebbelein.

Robert Smith, son of Norman Smith of Woodstock, is currently handling the Dairyale milk deliveries in this section.

Birthdays on Sunday, January 18, include those of Jennie Miller of Broadhead and Muriel Byron of Mt. Tremper. Mrs. Miller is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Andrew P. Avery who lived near Watson Hollow. She is a sister of Francis Avery of West Shokan and Grant Avery of Shokan.

Mrs. Byron, former Ashokan girl and K. H. S. student, is the daughter of Lermuel E. and Jessie (Winne) DuBois of Ashokan. A married daughter, Mrs. E. Roosa, was that of Benjamin E. Roosa, Olive, to Mary Amanda Traver of Michigan. They were married at Bushkill by the Rev. John H. Lane, pastor of the Shokan M. E. Church. Witnesses to the nuptials were John Traver and Adelia A. Roosa.

Several local matrons who have employment in Kingston are now traveling to and from their work by Bino Hill bus. These, together with high school students and other passengers from six communities, serve to tax well the capacity of the early morning bus to town.

Two out of town doctors were present at the Saturday night meeting of the Olive Chamber of Commerce. The visiting medics were guests of the chamber in connection with that organization's efforts to secure a resident physician for Olive. It is understood that the house of the late Frank Manley in Olive Bridge is available as a suitable office and residence for a doctor deciding to locate in the town.

One of the new model Ford pickup trucks is now on display at the Haver's Garage showroom. The truck, attractive in its green paint decor, is said to embody a number of features not found in the older models.

Marcel Maier, former Glenford young man who drove the Beech-which took 250 hours to complete. The Golden Hind was the second ship to circumnavigate the globe in 1677-1680.

Mr. Terpening, who has worked as a machinist for 20 years at the F. Jacobson and Sons Factory, 10 years at the carpet mills and 11 years at the American Cigar Co., enjoys making these useful articles many of which are on display throughout his home.

Much of Mr. Terpening's skill in working with these subjects may be traced to his successful correspondence course in marine engineering at the International Correspondence School, Scranton, Pa., which he finished in only one and a half years for the regular three year course. He was born in Eddyville and was married to the former Miss Laura Kidney of Ellenville in 1900. (Freeman Photo) ford Farms delivery trucks on the olive route for several years, is now handling the town's Walters snowplow in the north reservoir country.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sharwell, formerly of Norfolk, Va., are spending the winter with Mrs. Sharwell's mother, Mrs. Neison Bell, and sister, Miss Chloey Bell, of Route 28.

Mrs. Joseph Randazzo and daughter of Flushing came up to Kingston to attend the funeral services of their relative, Mrs. Abram Bogart, who died Sunday. Mrs. Randazzo, as Pearl Bogart, was a pupil of the Brookside School in the old village of Shokan following consolidation of the Mountain district with the Olive No. 3, district.

State road improvement activities continue apace at the rock out environs this side of West Hurley village center. Shovels, graders and trucks are changing the topography there at a great rate. Traffic was detoured on a Tuesday but there is only a momentary delay at this point. The new road will run farther over on New York city land all along the West Hurley frontage on Route 28. Some local traffic sharps already are engaged in figuring out the potential saving in gas and time which will result from a completed and almost curvilinear highway between Boiceville and the county seat.

Old Timer Says: Meeting up with our old friend in the village recently, we learned that this ancient is taking things comparatively easy these days; he opines that the snow in the woods is now too deep for a man of his age to be wallowing around in, that he soon gets plumb tucked out and thus spends more time resting than chopping wood. "I use her able to take it as well as the next feller," asseverates O.T., "but latterly I have come to emulate my yoke of oxen which I drove for some nine years. Oxen, whilst snaking out logs or hauling wood in deep snow, would allus heed nature's warning and come to a halt when tired. Some times lay right down in a drift, chew cud and otherwise relax for a spell. But man, being dumber than the dumb ox, so-called in some respects, keeps right on when tired; then, some fine day, old ticker plays out and quick so that feller topples over and never is riz up again in this vale of tears." (Sounds like you have something there, Old Timer. We'll endeavor to keep that sage advice in mind).

U. S. farmers now own over two million trucks, twice as many as they owned in 1940.

Plattekill, Jan. 15—The program presented Monday evening in the Plattekill Grange was under the direction of Mrs. Charles Everett, Mrs. James Leetch and Mrs. Herman Cook. Those taking part were Carol Martin, Albina and Paul Oriowski, Anne and Barbara Lang-litz, Norma Benedict, Elvira Garzon, Phyllis Paltridge, Thelma Waite, Faye Galick, Wilma Scott, Joan Cook, Thomas Adams, Nathaniel Davies, Robert Adams, James Leetch, Charles Thompson, Maureen Fleming, Milton Van Duser, Margaret Van Duser, Edith Minard, Josephine Kleeman, Walter Kleeman, Joan DeLapp, George Sisti, Jr., Helen Jacques, Muriel Ward, Mary Harris, Verda and Arlene Bernard, Barbara Jacques, Joyce Scott, Lolita Scott, Louise Hughes and Arlene Jacques. Mr. and Mrs. George Sisti, Jr., are the parents of a son born Tuesday, January 6, at St. Luke's Hospital.

Charles Everett is convalescing from pneumonia. Mrs. Bernard Kopaski and Mrs. Wilson Edmunds attended a meeting of the Public Health Nursing Committee of the town of Plattekill Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Milton Van Duser. Others attending were Mrs. Egbert Harcourt of Clintondale, Mrs. Lillian Courter, Mrs. Burton Ward, Mrs. Roy Jensen, Mrs. Frank Coy of Modena.

The Plattekill Fire Department responded to the alarm sent in Wednesday evening about 8:30 to assist in fighting the fire which was gutting the large cold storage plant of Melford G. Hurd in Clintondale. The plant was one of the oldest and the largest in Ulster county.

Edmund Wager visited William Mack, who is at his home with a fractured leg, on Sunday.

Republicans Signal

Taxes on profits of new corporations would be measured by a capital investment formula. The wartime excess profits tax was 95 per cent of income above the 1935-36 base, with no extra exemptions. Ten per cent was refundable after the war. That levy was repealed by a Democratic Congress right after the war.

Dingell said he would offer the Truman proposal as a substitute when the Ways and Means Committee votes on Knutson's bill early next week. One Democrat said privately he doubts that more than half of the ten Democrats on the committee will support the President.

It would also: 1. Raise the personal exemption from $500 to $600. 2. Apply to all states the community property principle under which husbands and wives can divide their income equally for tax reporting purposes, thus reducing their tax rates. 3. Grant additional cuts ranging from 30 per cent in the lowest income bracket to 10 per cent in the higher brackets.

Natural Gas Uses Natural gas is believed to have been used in China for light and for evaporating salt brine in 1,000 A.D., being transported through bamboo pipe lines.

Treasurer Plans

Continued from Page One ment increases in salary which were voted in general referendum last November, have been included in the budget. The general payroll, including all employees directly under the jurisdiction of the Common Council, will probably not contain any increases, since the council and not a board of commissioners, fix their salary. The Board of Public Works, which at present is in the same situation as the fire department, will not have its payday until January 23. Mayor Newkirk said today that there is "no need for a payless payday if it should occur, because the Common Council has provided money for all payrolls in the city under their jurisdiction."

 Democratic fight for more state aid to cities.
 Senator Elmer F. Quinn and Assemblyman Irwin Steingut, minority leaders, said in a joint statement that there had been "widespread" favorable reaction to the party's proposals for increased state aid to localities.

in rural areas which have been hard hit by the state's arbitrary action in reducing increased educational costs without providing funds for the local communities to carry out the program legislated by the state," the leaders said.
 They reported they had received many calls and letters of congratulations from municipal officials "in numerous counties" pledging support to the Democratic program.

The program, based on proposals made last week-end by the State Conference of Mayors, will take shape in three bills to be introduced soon.

The first, by Assemblyman Philip V. Backus, of Buffalo and Senator Peter J. Dalessandro of Watervliet, would require that any increase in educational costs be borne by the state.

The second, to be sponsored by Assemblyman James Lyons of Monticello and Dalessandro, would initiate a constitutional amendment prohibiting the state from mandating local expenditures unless it provided funds to finance them.

The third would repeal the section of the 1947 permissive local tax law insofar as it earmarks county levies only for education. Assemblyman D-Cady Herriek of Albany and Dalessandro will sponsor it.

Meanwhile the Citizens Public Expenditure Survey reported that state aid to localities had increased $179,900,000, or 91.4 per cent, since 1936.

The "big three" in state aid are education, general local assistance and social welfare, the private taxpayers' organization said.
 Assemblyman Joseph R. Younglove, Fulton county Republican, introduced a bill today to create a state tax policy commission. The body would study ways of establishing "a sound, integrated, sensible and workable policy that can be followed by the state and its municipalities."

Philadelphia Zoo Folk Have Census Trouble

Philadelphia, Jan. 15 (AP)—Officials of the Census Bureau and businessmen taking annual inventory may think they have troubles—but hark to the woes of the Philadelphia Zoo people.

John A. Griswold, curator of birds, tried yesterday to count the waterfowl—and everytime he came up with a different number. To add to his problem the Black Swans are building a nest—a little out of season in the eastern United States, but its spring back in Australia where the birds came from.

 Frederick A. Ulmer, Jr., curator of mammals, had an even worse time. Some of his charges, like the prairie dogs, are hibernating underground. An the keeper of the reptile house thought he had all reached 2,000—including the mice covered a couple of holdouts at the bottom of the tank.

 The final count is expected to reach 2,000—including the mice and canaries.

Tax Officials Advise Out-of-State Residents

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 15 (AP)—State tax officials said today that out-of-state residents who work in New York would save thousands of dollars in state income taxes by taking the flat 10 per cent deduction, up to $500, authorized this year.

ing the flat 10 per cent deduction, up to $500, authorized this year. Although they said no estimate could be made on the total sum involved for non-resident taxpayers, the officials declared it would run into the "thousands."

Chief out-of-state beneficiaries of the flat deduction will be commuters who work in New York city but who live in New Jersey and Connecticut.

The 10 per cent deduction was authorized by the 1947 Legislature in connection with the new "short form" income tax blanks, to be used this year for the first time.

Although out-of-state taxpayers cannot use the "short form," they are entitled to the flat reduction from gross incomes. In the past, non-residents have been permitted to deduct only those expenses directly connected with their production of income within the state. Unlike New York residents, they were not allowed to deduct taxes paid on homes, interest on mortgages and similar expenses in computing their returns.

New Boy Scout Executives

WILLIAM VERMANDOIS

Assistant Scout Executive Here

Assistant Scout Executive William Vermandois has joined the professional staff of the Ulster-Greene Council, Boy Scouts of America, and is serving the southern and western districts, and shares responsibility for the Kingston district with the Scout Executive D. G. Badger. He also will assume Council-wide coordination of camping, public relations, and leadership training.

Mr. Vermandois, who replaces Earl Allen, recently transferred to the Greater N. Y. Councils of the Boy Scouts of America, comes with three years experience as field executive in the Greater N. Y. Councils. As a volunteer, he has a background of scouting that includes scoutmastering, organization work, and camp waterfront directorship in Haverstraw and Tuckahoe, New York.

A graduate of the 110th National Training School for Professional Leaders, July 1945, Mr. Vermandois is also a graduate of the Cooper Union School of Art, has been married nine years to the former Miss Olga Cuadrilla of New York city, has three children, Karl Andre, 7, Marie Celeste, 4, and Lys Antonio, 2, is a member of Anglo-Saxon Lodge, No. 137, Free and Accepted Masons of Brooklyn.

Mr. Vermandois and family will take up residence in Port Ewen shortly.

C. E. BOARDMAN

New Field Boy Scout Executive

New Field Scout Executive Charles E. Boardman is serving the Saugerties, Northern and Mountain Districts of the Ulster-Greene Council, Boy Scouts of America. He was born in San Juan, Puerto Rico, and lived in the Virgin Islands for 14 years. He became a Boy Scout while living in the Virgin Islands and has held all troop positions since then. He entered Silver Bay Preparatory School on Lake George, N. Y., in 1929. He moved to Rouses Point, N. Y., in 1931 and graduated from high school in 1933. Mr. Boardman was graduated from Colgate University in 1938 with a major in sociology. After graduation he moved to Auburn, N. Y., and for a year was salesman in a furniture store. In the fall of 1939, Mr. Boardman worked for a N. Y. Electric & Gas Corporation in the commercial office and was with them until he entered the Army Air Corps of which he spent 37 months, serving the United States and overseas in Okinawa. On October 30, Mr. Boardman was graduated from the 125th National Training School for Professional Leaders in Scouting.

In 1943, he married Margaret Small of Herkimer, N. Y., and they have a son, James, born last April. Mr. Boardman has already begun his work with the Ulster-Greene Council. He replaces Richard Scherer who has resigned from the Professional Service of the Boy Scouts of America. Mr. Boardman is now living in Catskill.

Portuguese and French fishing fleets crossed the Atlantic and operated off the coasts of the United States as early as 1550.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Troop 6 Snow Camping Trip
Fifteen members of Troop 6 of Kingston, under the leadership of Howard Hornbeck, Sr., and Sherwood Lasher (with transportation assistance provided by Committeeman George H. Matthews) left Kingston early Saturday morning, January 10, for the Scout Camp, Trimont, in the Catskills. The route was good all the way.

Arrived at camp, the party was met by an advance guard of the Pathfinder Patrol, who with Assistant Scoutmaster Ted Brooks had come up the night before. These five Pathfinders had first going which was doubly welcome as the thermometer was dropping rapidly and the snow blew furiously and continuously. Because of the inclement weather outdoor activities, except a few short exploration trips around camp, were dispensed with. The stoves and fireplaces were popular spots all afternoon, and "Close the Door" rapidly became the watchword of the day.

Saturday evening all 23 of the party crowded in front of the fireplace in the cottage for campfire songs, stories and other activities. After tea, the leaders made the rounds to see that everyone was comfortable and warmly bedded for the night.

Sunday morning was, for many of the scouts, their first experience at getting out of bed into below-zero air. After getting warmly dressed and thawed out by the fires, they cooked their breakfasts and ate with the usual hearty appetites. A portion of the morning was devoted to a simple camp church service while the Catholic scouts went in to Hunter to attend Mass. After some short snow squalls the day turned bright, clear and sunny, and the wind died down. The scouts then went skiing, skating on the lake, and snowshoeing in the woods. Tracks of various game animals were investigated, but no animals were sighted.

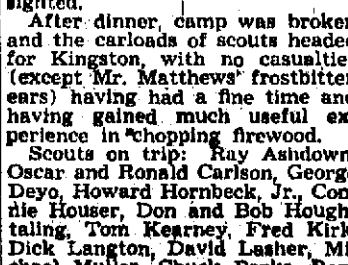

After dinner, camp was broken and the carloads of scouts headed for Kingston, with no casualties (except Mr. Matthews' frostbitten ears) having had a fine time and having gained much useful experience in "chipping" firewood.

A Word of Appreciation
I would like to publicly thank each and every patron of the Fairview-Lucas avenue bus line, in all sections of the city, for your overwhelming response with postal cards containing the names of you and your families.
The result of your efforts has certainly been sustained.
I would be remiss were I to fail to especially thank the Kingston Daily Freeman for their prominence they extended towards so worthy a cause; to Mr. Robert Browning of Radio Station WKNY; and to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Grimm, Mrs. Earl Gedney, Mrs. Thomas Coffey, Miss Evelyn Gile, Mrs. Rose Coffey and Marilyn Orr who gave so generously of their time and effort towards realizing our petition to the Public Service Commission.
Now, with God's help, a rightfully deserved permanent permit.

Mercury Drops to 13 Below in Some Areas

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 15 (AP)—Frigid weather gripped upstate New York today with temperatures touching as low as 13 degrees below zero.

Buffalo, with a one-below zero temperature, was coated with about three inches of snow from a heavy squall off Lake Erie.

The U. S. Weather Bureau reported no snow elsewhere in the state.

The mercury plummeted to 13 degrees below zero at Ticonderoga. Elsewhere had 12 below and Binghamton, 9 below.

Other temperatures: Syracuse and Fort Plain, 5 below; Albany, 4 below; Glens Falls, 3 below; Danville, 2 below; Rochester, 1 below; and New York city 8.9 above.

Mayor Calls Conference To Avert a Threatened Strike

New York, Jan. 15 (AP)—Seeking to avert a threatened strike of ironworkers scheduled for noon tomorrow, Mayor William O'Dwyer has invited representatives of an A.F.L. union and four companies to meet today at city hall with a conciliation committee named by him.

The parties involved are the International Association of Bridge, Structural and Ornamental Iron Workers; the American Bridge Company, Bethlehem Steel Company, Lehigh Structural Steel Company and the Harris Structural Steel Company.

Several thousand iron workers are seeking an hourly wage increase from $2.75 to $3, Theodore W. Kheel, director of the City Division of Labor Relations, said. Kheel will assist the mayor's committee.

CHEESE CAKE ALWAYS POPULAR

Everybody welcomes home-made cheese cake.

By GAYNOR MADDUX
NEA Staff Writer

For a sure-fire dessert success, count on cheese cake. It always wins. It is packed with nutrition. Therefore when you serve it, you can cut down a little on the other dishes.

Cheese Cake (Serves 9)

Filling: Three eggs, 3 packages cream cheese (9 ounces of cheese), 1 teaspoon vanilla extract, 2/3 cup sugar, 1 1/2 tablespoons flour, 2/3 cup whipping cream.

Separate eggs; reserve one white for crust. Thoroughly beat egg yolks. Beat cream cheese into yolks. Stir in vanilla extract, 2/3 cup sugar and flour. Whip cream and fold into cheese mixture. Beat two egg whites until stiff and fold into cheese mixture. Pour cheese mixture on graham cracker crust.

Crust: One and one-half cups graham cracker crumbs, 1/2 cup chopped pecan meats, 1/3 cup sugar, 1/3 cup melted shortening, 1 egg white (reserved from eggs for filling).

Mix together graham cracker crumbs, chopped pecan meats, 1/3 cup sugar and melted shortening until well blended. Reserve 1/4 cup of this crumb mixture for topping. Into remaining crumb mixture stir in one egg white, beaten until stiff. Press graham cracker crumb mixture into bottom of heat-resistant glass square cake dish. Pour filling on top of crust, sprinkle with 1/4 cup of crumb mixture and bake in slow oven (300 degrees F.) for one hour.

Lemon Snow Pudding (Serves 6)

One envelope plain gelatin, 1/4 cup cold water, 1 cup hot water, 1/4 cup lemon juice, 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind, 1/4 cup sugar, whites of 2 eggs, 1/4 teaspoon salt. Soften gelatin in cold water. Add sugar, salt and hot water and stir until dissolved. Add lemon. Stir the mixture occasionally and when quite thick, beat with wire spoon or whisk until frothy; add stiffly beaten whites of eggs and continue beating pudding until stiff enough to hold its shape. Chill in individual molds.

Tomorrow's Menu

BREAKFAST: Orange juice, shredded wheat, rye toast, butter or fortified margarine, coffee, milk. LUNCHEON: Toasted peanut butter and chili sauce sandwiches, cabbage, orange and onion salad, leftover cake or cookies with baked apple, tea, milk or cocoa.

DINNER: Mixed grapefruit and tomato juice, scalloped oysters, baked potatoes, canned peas, jellyed cranberries, enriched bread, butter or fortified margarine, celery, homemade cheese cake.

HIGHLAND NEWS

Highland, Jan. 13.—The new officers presided for the first meeting of the year Friday afternoon when the W.S.C.S. met with Mrs. A. Herbert Campbell. Mrs. Charles DuBois asked for an executive meeting at her home Thursday afternoon to formulate plans for the coming year's work. The Christmas cheer arranged by Mrs. Edison Dimsey, Jr., retiring sunshine chairman, was reported by the incoming chairman, Mrs. Parker Decker. The greeting committee to act during this month is Mrs. Josiah Schoonmaker and Mrs. August Gersch. Mrs. Leon Burnett conducted the devotions, followed by the program arranged by Mrs. Victor Clearwater on Thy Way Upon Earth. She was assisted by Mrs. Luther Filkins, Mrs. John F. Wadlin, Mrs. Jacob Schuhle, Mrs. Herbert Greenland. Attending the meeting were Mrs. James R. Swift, new recording secretary, Mrs. Carrie Atkins, Mrs. Wadlin, Mrs. Burnett, Mrs. George Corneli, Mrs. Decker, Mrs. Clearwater, Mrs. Oscar Elliott, Mrs. Schuhle, Mrs. Filkins, Mrs. Walter Constable, Mrs. August Gersch, the Misses Belle Brinckerhoff, Bertha, Stella, Minnie, Tiel, Elizabeth Rhodes,

Mrs. Greenland, Mrs. William Russell, Mrs. Perry Hitchcock, Mrs. Myron Kniffin, Mrs. Rose Seaman, Mrs. Schoonmaker, Mrs. Fred Wilsey, Mrs. C. L. DuBois, and the hostess who with her committee, Mrs. Clearwater, Mrs. Corneli, Mrs. Constable and Mrs. Troy Cook, served refreshments. Officers of the Presbyterian Sunday School were installed during the Sunday school sessions Sunday morning by the pastor, the Rev. Oscar Jelama. Mrs. Gladys Meers, superintendent; Miss Emily Lent, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Matthew P. Busch, treasurer; Philip Shunk, secretary; Mrs. Walter Clark, chairman of home department. The two absent to be installed later were Mrs. Jelama, cradle roll, and Mrs. Alvin Stillier, primary department. The installation was followed by a talk from Mr. Jelama regarding the purpose of the Sunday school and obligations of the officers. Mr. and Mrs. Luther Filkins were in Marlborough Monday attend the funeral of the latter's aunt, Mrs. Carrie Chidgey, who was also the mother of Lewis Chidgey, Grove street, a driver for the Mountain View bus lines. Miss Ethel Haines conducted the devotions at the meeting of the Ganse Church School Society at the meeting Thursday night with Mrs. Herbert Greenland. Miss Haines used the subject, Thy Way Upon the Earth. Members are planning to attend a lecture in Trinity Methodist Church, Newburgh, January 28 to hear a young Christian Japanese, Toru Matsumoto speak. Mrs. Greenland was in charge of the nursery school January 11; Mrs. Edison Dimsey, January 18; Mrs. Luther Filkins the 25th; Mrs. Charles Owens, February 1; Mrs. Parker Decker, February 8. A mock food sale will be held at the next meeting. Present were Mrs. Owen, Mrs. Florence Reed, Mrs. John F. Wadlin, Mrs. Edison Dimsey, Jr., Miss Haines, Mrs. Henry Swift, Mrs. Troy Cook, Mrs. Decker, Mrs. Harold Seaman, Mrs. Jack LaFolce, Jr., Mrs. Louise Budashe, Mrs. Gordon Wilcox, Mrs. Filkins. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Elmer Fisher the meeting was presided over by Mrs. Wilcox. Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Jacobs, South street, are visiting in Washington for two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jenke entertained 20 guests at a buffet supper at Bracraft Saturday evening.

Home for Aged Report for Year

Annual Report Filed With Board Managers

Following is the report of Home for Aged for the year ending December 31st, 1947.

Madam President, and members of the Board of Managers of the Home for the Aged in Ulster County:

It is a pleasure to submit the following annual report: We have held nine meetings with an average attendance of thirteen members.

Mrs. Harry H. Fleming has attended every meeting.

The Mesdames, Holcomb, Rose, Sniffen, Wonderly, and Snyder have attended all but one meeting.

There were nine applications for admission, which were accepted and placed on file in the order received.

There were three deaths among the residents during the past year, and three new guests have been admitted to the home.

On one occasion during the past summer, the ladies of the home were taken to the summer camp of Mrs. Snyder, where they enjoyed a social afternoon, and were served with refreshments.

There were numerous other entertainments given by the various churches and other organizations of the city. These activities are greatly appreciated and welcomed by the occupants of the home, as there are a number of occupants who are closely confined.

Three new members were elected to the associate membership during the past year.

The ladies of the home made eleven hundred sandwiches for the fire fighters, the material for which was supplied by the Red Cross.

A painting of flowers, executed by Mrs. Dillon, was donated to the home by Mrs. George Hutton.

On Donation Day a musical program was provided and refreshments served. Cash donations on this day were six hundred three dollars and fifty cents. We also received numerous other gifts of food such as canned and fresh fruits, vegetables, jellies, jams, etc.

Each month some members of the board has called on the guests. The Ministerial Association has attended to all of the religious services held at the home, which is greatly appreciated.

Each month a list of donations for the month is read at the board meeting, and a copy is printed in the daily newspaper.

In spite of many difficulties in securing and keeping cooks and maids, and of the increased costs of all supplies, we have managed to carry on the good work, and without increasing the price of admission.

Our guests have helped in many ways by doing extra work.

We now have three married couples, one single man, and twenty seven women in the home. There are thirty-five people anxiously awaiting admission to the home at the present time.

We are very grateful to all the people who have contributed in any manner to the support and well being of this worthy institution, and we wish to take this opportunity to express our appreciation to them.

Respectfully Submitted,
NELLIE P. SYNDER
Secretary

PORK LOIN WITH APPLE FRITTERS

Have backbone removed from pork loin. Season. Place fat side up on rack in open roasting pan. Insert meat thermometer so the bulb reaches the center of the thickest part. Be careful that the thermometer does not rest in fat or on bone. Do not add water. Do not cover. Roast in a moderate oven (350° F.) until the meat thermometer registers 185° F. Allow about 30 minutes per pound for roasting. Serve apple fritters as an accompaniment. A 3 to 5 pound Pork Loin Roast will give you from 6 to 10 servings.

Bills Proposed in Legislature

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 15 (AP)—A statewide meat inspection system to prevent sale of unfit meat is sought in a bill introduced in the Legislature today by Senator Thomas C. Desmond.

The Newburgh Republican said his measure "recognizes, as Governor Dewey pointed out in his annual message, that meat is likely to be in shorter supply this year than it was last year."

As supply dwindles, "slaughterhouses may find ready customers for almost anything they can put on the market," Desmond said. His bill would require meat inspection by the state Department of Agriculture at the state's 1,500 presently unsupervised slaughterhouses.

The Legislature also received proposals to:

Set up a separate Department of Motor Vehicles and Transportation.

"Halt the progressive depletion" of New York forests through state assumption of taxes on forest land until the crop has been harvested.

Establish a temporary commission to encourage expansion of small business.

Establish an eight-hour day, six-day week for State Police with time and a half overtime pay. A assemblyman Richard H. Knapp, R-Singhmont, introduced the State Police measure. It answered a major legislative request of the State Police Benevolent Association, which had been campaigning for a 48-hour week, a similar bill died in committee last year.

Another bill which the sponsor said was of "substantial benefit" to all police officers would exempt policemen from the state's safety responsibility law in accidents occurring during performance of duty. It was introduced by Senator Seymour Halpern, Queens Republican.

Assemblyman Chas. S. Forsythe, Onondaga Republican, offered a proposed constitutional amendment to create a Department of Motor Vehicles, now a bureau of the State Tax Department. Forsythe also introduced the bill to set up a 10-member, temporary small business commission under a $50,000 appropriation.

Senator Chauncey B. Hammond of Elmira and Assemblyman Benjamin H. Domo of Lewis county, both Republicans, said their bill to provide state payment of taxes on forest lands under growth was designed "to prevent further deterioration of forest growing stock."

After the crop reached maturity, under their proposal, a six per cent yield would be levied by the state.

Other measures would:

Authorize localities to grant full real estate tax exemptions on new homes for 10 years. (Assemblyman Nathan A. Lashin, D-Bronx.)

Prohibit dumping or disposal of garbage in New York City. (Senator Frederic E. Hammer, Assemblyman Henry Schneider, Jr., R-Queens.)

Bill is Presented

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 15 (AP)—A bill to legalize off-track pari-mutuel betting on horse racing in New York state has been introduced by Senator James J. Crawford.

The state and affected subdivisions would receive an estimated $30,000,000 a year through licensed off-track wagering, the Brooklyn Democrat said.

Revenue, he added, should eliminate existing nuisance taxes.

Off-track betting now is done through bookmakers, whose operations are illegal in this state.

The Crawford measure proposes that the State Racing Commission establish offices throughout the state for handling bets, which would be transmitted by messenger service to tracks and sent through the mutual machines.

Bettors would receive receipts but the wager would not be valid until it had passed through the machines.

The branch offices would be licensed by the racing commission which would set up the operating system. Localities would have the option of permitting or banning such offices.

In past years, similar measures by Crawford have been killed in committee.

Yesterday, Assemblyman Thomas A. Carney, Brooklyn Republican, introduced a bill calling for elimination of the constitutional restriction limiting betting to pari-mutual systems. This would permit the Legislature to authorize off-track betting.

Earlier in the week a resolution proposing a joint legislative committee study of the question was introduced by Assemblyman Alexander Del Giorno, Queens Democrat.

War No. 1 Cost

In fiscal 1949, 79% of expenditures directly reflects the cost of war, the effects of war and our efforts to prevent future wars.

In fiscal 1939, 71% of expenditures went toward progressive, constructive programs domestically, only 29% to costs resulting from war.

Over three-quarters of the 1949 budget is for direct or indirect war expenditures. Only 21 per cent goes for social welfare, housing, education, research, agriculture, natural resources, transportation, general government and other constructive activities.

To Confer on Fuel Oil

New York, Jan. 15 (AP)—State Fuel Coordinator Charles H. Bell and Police Commissioner Arthur W. Wallender, city fuel coordinator, scheduled conferences in Washington today seeking relief from the heating crisis threatening this part of the country. They planned to attend a conference of the interior executives with fuel coordinators from 23 states. Sells, although describing the New York heating problem as still critical yesterday, said the day's developments showed the immediate hardships resulting from recent snowstorms were easing. More fuel oil and kerosene deliveries were reported being made.

Will Ask Pay Hike

Schenectady, N. Y., Jan. 15 (AP)—The C.I.O. Electrical Workers will ask General Electric for a 32% cent hourly increase this year, top union officers indicated last night, but an unofficial report later placed the amount at 20 cents.

4-H CLUB NEWS

Members Will Participate

Ulster County 4-H Club members and those from clubs throughout eastern New York state will participate in the annual fruit show of the New York State Horticultural Society which convenes in Kingston at the state armory January 28, 29, and 30.

The 4-H Club boys and girls will give demonstrations on some phase of the fruit industry. This will include the preparation of fruit as a food, care of the fruit while growing, and placing the fruit on market. These demonstrations will be 10 to 12 minutes in length. Certificates of participation will be awarded to each member participating.

On Thursday, two 4-H representatives from each county in eastern New York will have a chance to vie for the title of the Best Pie Baker in the region. Ulster county will select her representative at a county elimination.

Club members in Ulster county are asked to let the 4-H Club office know immediately.

During the fruit show, there will be a 4-H Snack Booth where 4-H Club members will dispense hot mulled cider and apple sauce cake.

Plans are under way for a few exhibits of apples by different 4-H clubs, and too, members will have a chance to judge apples and participate in the disease and insect identification contests.

Additional information on the youth activities at the fruit show may be obtained by contacting the 4-H Club office, 74 John street.

Full House Expected to Watch Simpson-Wallace Match Tonight

Buffalo Golden Glovers Also on B'nai B'rith Bill

Indications are that the "standing room only" signs will be out at the Kingston Municipal Auditorium tonight for the Paul Simpson-Coley Wallace heavyweight match featuring B'nai B'rith card of boxing bouts.

Whenever Simpson is on the bill the local club can count on a full house, and with Wallace as his opponent a double magnet will be working at the box office.

Simpson, Cleveland's gift to the Golden Gloves heavyweight crop, regarded as another Joe Louis, finds it hard to get opponents because of his punching ability. He has one of the best right hands in the amateur ranks as attested by his string of knockouts, at least four of which he scored in Kingston.

Preliminary Steps Are Taken to Form Hudson Valley Scholastic Conference

Preliminary steps to form an athletic conference for schools of the Hudson Valley were taken Wednesday night during a meeting of 52 persons representing 19 schools in Ulster, Orange, Sullivan and Dutchess counties at the Newburgh Free Academy cafeteria.

Kingston High School was represented by G. Warren Kias, director of athletics; Arthur J. Laidlaw, superintendent of schools; Principal Clarence L. Dumm and Coach Willard Burke.

In The Pocket

with CHARLIE TIANO

A Night With the Nimrods:
The first annual banquet of the Lake Katrine Rod and Gun Club was a vigorous, lusty show, the kind you would expect when the fearless men of the outdoors gather indoors to regale each other with high voltage jokes.

To the tenderfoot, it was a revelation. It is easy to understand why the Katrine organization is one of the most successful clubs in the state. The various annual reports told a story of major achievements, success and greater plans for 1948.

You got the impression that men like Mayor Oscar Newkirk, Les Hotaling and a flock of other willing workers have done a great job. Hizzoner was drafted for a second term as president.

The Pheasant Stocking Program:

Bill Bromley, the district game commissioner, congratulated the club for its splendid record and said the County Federation had accomplished more in 1947 than any other year in the past. . . . Bromley, tall gangling man with a simple, unaffected approach to the subject, spoke at length on pheasant stocking. . . . Current methods of stocking have failed to keep pheasant population at normal figures, he said. . . . The mid-August stocking and the state's 800 fish and game clubs could minimize the difficulties. . . . County sportsmen can be sold on pheasant stocking. . . . Twenty-one per cent of the hunting pressure in New York state is centered in five per cent of the available hunting space—in the lower Hudson counties. . . . Situation is acute, he said, in Putnam, Rockland and Westchester. . . . There is a rabbit hunting Shangri-la in Orange county where you can find seven and one-half tons of cotton tails in any direction you face. . . . He revealed plans for a large new holding yard at Walkkill Prison where 1200 birds will be accommodated.

The production is now at rock bottom, Bromley continued, although six lower New York state clubs are excluding more pheasants in native bird production in 1947. . . . Sighting of more pheasants this winter and prospects of a good spring would help the situation here in 1948. . . . He prescribed more effective stocking methods: 1. Setting up centralized holding yards for half grown birds, adequate food and cover until birds reach adult stage. . . . Take cock pheasants and distribute them equitably on a "for the gun" basis throughout the county. . . . He revealed plans for a large new holding yard at Walkkill Prison where 1200 birds will be accommodated.

Flotsam and Jetsam:

Other observations: The State Department of Conservation does make some mistakes. The better cooperation between the department and the state's 800 fish and game clubs could minimize the difficulties. . . . County sportsmen can be sold on pheasant stocking. . . . Twenty-one per cent of the hunting pressure in New York state is centered in five per cent of the available hunting space—in the lower Hudson counties. . . . Situation is acute, he said, in Putnam, Rockland and Westchester. . . . There is a rabbit hunting Shangri-la in Orange county where you can find seven and one-half tons of cotton tails in any direction you face. . . . He revealed plans for a large new holding yard at Walkkill Prison where 1200 birds will be accommodated.

Fish and game and rod and gun club activities are on the upswing in the area. Getting more of the publicity they deserve and the situation should improve in 1948. The Katrine Club hopes to hold its February meeting in the new clubhouse. . . . Tom Parker, past president and Joe Duncan, his successor, of the East Kingston Rod and Gun Club, enjoyed the affair, especially the jokes. . . . Philip Gillen, of the Kingston office, registered a protest against lack of publicity. . . . The color films were terrific.

MULLIGAN MIKE SAYS: The first log cabin built by early settlers has been found near Downsville. A real estate man has put it on the market for $19,500.

Andy Murphy High For Winners With 12 on Wednesday

Minus the services of their highly publicized giant, Ike Harvey, the 6 foot 7 inch pivot man, the Chatham Legionnaires proved to be no match for Coach Andy Dykes' Kingston Legion quintet Wednesday night at the municipal auditorium as the locals hung up victory number six of the campaign with a convincing 62 to 39 decision.

Kingston jumped to an early halftime lead of 27-20 but after that the invaders were only in the game for the ride as the sharp-shooting of Ray "Lindy" Lindhurst, Andy Murphy, Jack Ruzzo and Charlie Bock rolled up a tremendous margin.

Murphy Is High
Big Andy Murphy, the club's top scorer, continued his usual role last night by assaulting the wicket for four fields and four free throws to give him high of 12 markers. Lindhurst, Ruzzo and Bock followed with 10 each.

The Chatham club, boasting a terrific unbeaten record against all other Legionnaire outfits, was paced by Ed Sullivan, forward, who dropped in 11 points. Sullivan entered last night's tilt with a keen streak-of having accounted for 117 points in his last four games for a 29-point average.

The boxscore:

Dick Button Eyes Olympic Contests After First Title

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 15 (AP)—With the European men's figure skating title stowed safely away, 18-year-old Dick Button of Englewood, N. J., today eyed a second major ice goal—the Winter Olympic Games Championship, starting at St. Moritz, Switzerland, the last of this month.

The United States and North American title-holder clinched the coveted European crown last night by excelling in the free skating events, to defeat the defending champion, Hans Gerschwiler of Switzerland.

It was the second championship to be decided in the European tournament being conducted here, as the Hungarian duo of Andrea Keckesy and Ede Kiraly took the pairs title a day earlier.

Meanwhile, on the basis of her performance yesterday, Barbara Ann Scott of Ottawa, Canada, world and European women's figure skating champion, seems virtually certain of successfully defending her European crown.

The free skating division of the women's events winds up that competition tonight with Miss Scott holding a clear margin in a field of 20 contestants.

Young U. S. Ice Skating Team Set For '48 Olympics

Boston, Jan. 15 (AP)—A well-balanced United States Olympic figure-skating team—a "teen age" group for the most part—but one of veterans on ice—is going into the 1948 international meet ranked for the first time on even terms with Europeans who have dominated the sport.

The United States has never won an Olympic title in either men's or ladies' figure skating, or the figure skating pairs, but hopes rose sharply as the result of yesterday's victory of 18-year-old Dick Button of Englewood, N. J., in the European championships. He bested the top European, Hans Gerschwiler, of Switzerland, defending men's titleholder.

Tried Performers
Marking a long stride since Sonja Henie came out of Norway to glamorize skating in Hollywood, this country is sending tried performers to St. Moritz in January who have already won their spurs in world-wide competition.

Leading the American team are Button and blonde Gretchen Merrill, 21-year-old Boston debutante who's been skating against the world's best since she was 10. Last year Button was runner-up in the world's championships at Stockholm.

With them will be a versatile bunch, ranging from 15-year-old Jimmy Grogan of Oakland, Calif., to the "Kennedy Kids" out of Seattle, Wash.—a brother-and-sister who skate as a pair.

The Kennedy—Peter, 20, and Karol, 15—were runners-up in the world competition early this year. Eileen Seigh, 18-year-old Brooklyn, N. Y., girl, and Yvonne Sherman of New York will be with Miss Merrill.

With Button and the youthful Grogan will be Johnny Lettenberger, 19, of St. Paul, Minn., who's an outstanding skater as well as the nation's second ranking figure skater.

Yankees Sign Pair

New York, Jan. 15 (AP)—The New York Yankees are drowning their infield problems in the ink of signed contracts.

The world's baseball champions announced yesterday two more players had entered the fold for 1948—Bobby Brown and Steve Souchock, the latter a first-baseman up from Kansas City.

Brown started out as regular third baseman last season, went to the sidelines with an injury and then couldn't pry Bill Johnson loose from the hot corner.

Nevertheless, he batted an even .300 in 69 games and became the pinch-hitting hero of the World Series against Brooklyn by getting two doubles, a single and a walk in four appearances at the plate.

Souchock, getting his second try with the Yankees, batted .292 last season with the American Association Blues, driving in 99 runs. Both he and Brown are listed as rivals of George McQuinn for the Yankees' first base post. The Yankees announce they now have 12 players signed for 1948.

Lujack Is Named Top Male Athlete of 1947

New York, Jan. 15 (AP)—Johnny Lujack, Notre Dame's All-America quarterback, today was named male athlete-of-the-year for 1947 in the annual Associated Press year-end poll.

The 22-year-old star, winner of the Heisman Memorial Trophy and named the standout player of the Jan. 1 East-West Shrine game at San Francisco, drew almost twice as many first place votes from the nation's sports editors as his nearest competitor.

Fifteen thought Lujack was the No. 1 man and eight voted for runner-up Jack Kramer and eight for Joe DiMaggio, on a point basis, with five for first, three for second and one for third. Lujack piled up 116 credits to 78 for Kramer, the national tennis champ, and 49 for DiMaggio, final center-fielder of the world champion New York Yankees.

Rubik Drava Votes Jackie Robinson, Brooklyn's first baseman who was the first Negro to play in the big leagues in modern days, drew considerable support. So did Don Walker, southern Methodist all-American halfback.

But Lujack was the winner by a comfortable margin on the strength of his play for the unbeaten, untied fighting Irish, Honored as a fit successor for such great Notre Dame quarterbacks as Harry Stuhldreher, Frank Cardone and Angelo Bertelli, the modest unassuming senior capped his collegiate career with a brilliant performance at San Francisco on New Year's Day.

Lujack, 180-pound six-footer from Connellsville, Pa., said he would play pro ball next fall after he has graduated from Notre Dame but he has not decided between the Chicago Bears and the Chicago Rockets of the All-America Conference.

Succeeds Glenn Davis The Notre Dame passing star succeeds another football player, Glenn Davis, who won the award last year while rounding out his brilliant career with Army. Davis was the only previous winner who drew any votes, Joe Louis, the runner-up in 1946, being completely overlooked after his fight with Jersey Joe Walcott.

Bendix to Play Ruth Hollywood, Jan. 15 (AP)—Babe Ruth will be portrayed in the screen story of his career by actor William Bendix. The title role in "The Babe Ruth Story" was assigned to Bendix yesterday and production on the film is scheduled to start March 15. "The Babe" himself will serve as technical advisor to Producer-Director Roy Del Ruth. Mimi Chaudler, daughter of Baseball Commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler, is being tested for a part in the production.

Summer Fights In Ball Parks

New York, Jan. 15 (AP)—The Twentieth Century Sporting Club will stage two outdoor fights a year in New York baseball parks under an agreement signed yesterday with the Yankees and Giants.

As a starter, Yankee Stadium gets Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis' title defense in June against an unnamed foe. Louis has announced this will be his last one. His opponent is figured to be Jersey Joe Walcott, the veteran who floored the champ and dropped a split decision to him early in December.

Details of the Twentieth Century baseball park deal were not disclosed. The agreement has three years to run.

Arthur (Red) Patterson, making the announcement for the Yankees, said, "All differences had been ironed out" after five days of dickering.

Bear Mountain Deer Face Death in Park

Bear Mountain, N. Y., Jan. 15 (AP)—An estimated 75 per cent of the deer in the 40,000-acre Bear Mountain section of Palisades Interstate Park and adjacent Rockland county forests will die within the next few weeks unless they are fed and protected from dog packs, a park official says.

"Park rangers and the police are putting out six boxes of alfalfa daily near waterholes and orders have been issued to shoot all dogs chasing deer," Gus Lavery, chief of the Interstate Park police, said yesterday.

In Ramapo township, Chief of Police Abe Stern said there would be few healthy deer left for hunters in Rockland county next fall unless weather conditions ease. An examination of deer found dead in the forests disclosed they had died of starvation.

State conservation laws order the shooting of dogs running deer between Jan. 15 and April 15. In state-protected parks dogs attacking deer may be shot at any time. Deer sink into the deep forest snow when trying to escape from their lighter-attackers, Stern said. Evidence also was found indicating that a fox ran one deer to exhaustion and then waited for it to die before eating its carcass.

Stern said there was little hope for preservation of deer born in 1947. Older ones also are in a critically weakened condition, he added.

Bowling

Bob "Glants" Tierney, the man who believes big league baseball starts and ends with the New York Giants, flitted with the ruffled "600" series in the Booster League but had a bad middle game held him to 551. But that was sufficient unto the night and the Order of the Brass Medal. Bob's three games were 211-168-202.

Ed Wyant (without the E) shot another good series, 539, indicating he may have found what Ponce de Leon sought many moons ago.

Others in the upper strata included Sam Kaplan 181-527; Cy Goldfarb 201-505; Don Keyser 182-492; Andy Campbell 205-546; Warren Simmons 205-489; F. Cronen 181-518; W. Senor 185-494; Pat Senior 181-493.

Sam Moss was overcome by the heroics of Tierney and Wyant and plummeted to a bargain basement special of "3.98."

Schupp Blasts 244 Eddie Schupp featured the Catholic Athletic Association kneeling at the Central Reds, Wednesday night, with a 244 single blast and the lone 600 of the night with a neat 804 for St. Peter's of Kingston.

Joe Nagy of St. Peter's, Rosendale, just missed the "600 Club" when he fashioned a 598 series on scores of 179-208-209.

Other noteworthy scores included Fred Ferraro with 202-544, Pete Sympa 221-538, Ralph Mayone 210-530, Leo Schupp 205-525, Ed Norton 188-517, J. Manello 195-515, C. Hertica 196-512, Frank Sympa 204-507, P. Nagy 196-505, and Mickey Mazzuca 209-493.

John Galt Will Wed Winifred B. Weed In Old Greenwich

New York, Jan. 14 (Special).—The marriage of Miss Winifred Belle Weed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Andrew Weed of Old Greenwich, Conn., to John Piersen Galt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Percival Galt of Kingston, will take place Saturday at the First Congregational Church in Old Greenwich. The Rev. Vincent

Daniels, pastor of the church, will perform the ceremony. A reception will follow at Brookton Manor in Stamford, Conn. Miss Marguerite Stedman will be maid of honor. Lawrence Galt will serve as best man and James Galt, Roland Taylor and Adam Beck will be ushers.

The bride, wearing a white satin gown with a fingertip veil, will carry a bouquet of white roses. Her attendant will be gown in aqua faille with gold accessories. Miss Weed was graduated from Tufts College. Mr. Galt was a B-25 pilot with the 12th Air Force in Italy, and is now with the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company in New York.

After a wedding trip to the Poconos, the couple will make their home in Montclair, N. J.

New Paltz College Instructor Engaged

New Paltz, Jan. 15.—Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Louise Hoffbeck, daughter of Mrs. Nelson Hoffbeck of Millerton and the late Mr. Hoffbeck, to William R. Brewer of Millerton. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Hoffbeck was graduated from Millerton High School and received her bachelor of arts degree from Vassar College in 1947.

She is now an instructor in the division of natural science in New Paltz State Teachers College. Mr. Brewer also is a graduate of Millerton High School, attended Berkshire School for Boys at Sheffield, Mass., and served in the army two and one-half years with overseas duty on Luzon as an engineer where he attained a sergeant's rating. At present time he is attending Mohawk College, Utica.

Club Notices

Tri-M
Tri-M Club of First Dutch Reformed Church will hold a covered dish supper Saturday at 6:30 p. m. in the church house. All young adults are invited. Each is to bring a covered dish item of food for the supper. A program will be held afterward planned by the social committee, Mrs. Craig Plough, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goble, Jr.

Olympian Club Dates

Several changes have been made in Olympian Club's program. The next meeting will be held as scheduled, January 26, with Miss Sadie Schutt, 85 Main street. The February meeting, February 16, will be held with Mrs. James J. Murphy, 255 Pearl street, instead of Miss Anna Mae Decker.

Personal Notes

Miss Barbara Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Cooper of 11 East Strand, has been pledged to Alpha Epsilon Phi Sorority at the New York State College for Teachers at Albany, New York.

Artists Honor Local Boy

Arnold Harris of 67 Chapel street, a pupil of Public School No. 1, has been honored with a one-year scholarship award by the Ulster County Artists Association upon recommendation of the Recreation Department of the city.

Harry L. Edson, superintendent of recreation, is shown holding a western scene in water color by the young artist. "Pop" Fuhrman presents Arnold with the scholarship award on behalf of the Artists Association. The painting was presented to Principal Finerty of School No. 1 by the student-artist.

Officials Study Red Scheme To Crush Aid Plan and Ruhr

By LYNN HEINZELING
Berlin, Jan. 15 (AP)—British and American officials studied today a reported Cominform scheme—identified as "Protocol M"—for smashing the Marshall Plan and crippling the industrial Ruhr. The anti-Communist German press, which published the alleged Communist program, denounced it as a proposed "Putsch."

Details of the plan, first published by the French-licensed newspaper Der Kurier late yesterday, said the program, brought to light in western Germany, would be coordinated by the Cominform—the Communist "information agency" set up by Communist leaders of nine nations in Poland last fall—and supported fully by the Soviet Union.

There seemed little inclination in either British or American official quarters to doubt the authenticity of the plan. One American official said publication of the plan alone was damaging enough to the Communist program in Germany. An official British statement this morning said "The announcement of the Cominform plan came from German sources and we have no reason to doubt its authenticity."

In Hamburg Dr. Kurt Schumacher, leader of the German Social Democrats, said today he had a copy of the plan in his Hannover headquarters. He called "Protocol M" the Communists' master plan to sabotage the Marshall Plan.

A spokesman at the headquarters of the Communist-controlled Soviet-sponsored Socialist Unity Party in Berlin, described the plan as "nonsense," but added that he couldn't say anything more about it immediately.

"Protocol M," as published by anti-Communist newspapers in Berlin today, sets out the operational procedure for creating mass strikes in transport and metal industries of western Germany "to break the monopolistic-capitalist attack of the so-called Marshall Plan."

M.J.M. Speaker

Dr. F. A. Young
Pupils at Myron J. Michael Junior High School will hear a talk on effective speech at a special assembly Friday at 8:45 a. m. by Dr. Frederick Arnold Young, author, traveler and an authority on the subject he'll talk about here.

Dr. Young is the author of "The Young Way to Correct English," a textbook widely used in adult education classes in English, and of "What Do You Say?" a glossary of 500 faulty English expressions.

For a number of seasons he has been on the summer faculty of Chautauque Institution, New York. He has presented a series of 30 lectures at Town Hall, New York, and has done special work in English at Harvard, Boston University, New York University, and the University of Pittsburgh.

For 13 years he has conducted adult English classes in Hollywood where he has taught many famous movie stars and producers. From his many years of experience in teaching he has prepared two fascinating demonstration lectures, "English As She Is Spoken" and "Manners for Minors," one of which he will present here.

Phoenicia, Jan. 15—Jacquelyn Loomis is reported recovering from her recent injury at the Margaretville Hospital. Mrs. Adrian Loomis and Miss Harriet Loomis spent Tuesday afternoon with Jacquelyn at the hospital.

Five Men Are

The Oved Trading Company of (147 West 42nd street) New York, listed as shipper of a large quantity of T.N.T.

The FBI said the other three men against whom federal complaints have been filed are Morris Schacht, Simon Callier and Eli Schalit, none of whom was further identified.

F.B.I. Special Agent Edward Scheidt said crates in both shipments were marked "used industrial machinery and parts," but that one group of 30 crates was found to contain 20,000 pounds of T.N.T. and another shipment of 58 cases contained several thousand blasting caps and 54,000 nickel primer caps. Breaking of a crate while being loaded on a ship revealed the explosives and led to seizure.

The shipment of caps, the F.B.I. said, was consigned to the Palestine Glass Works, Phoenixia, Ltd., Haifa, Palestine, and the T.N.T. to Hambroes Limited, Tel Aviv, Palestine.

Scheidt said the F.B.I. believes the T.N.T. was acquired this way: Alper purchased 80,000 pounds from the Pottsville Coal Sales Corporation, Pottsville, Pa., which had bought the explosive from the Philadelphia regional office of the War Assets Administration, and that delivery was made by the Letterkenny Arsenal Ordnance Depot at Chambersburg, Pa.

Three of the men arraigned—Seiger, Dorfman and Wolfson—were alleged by the F.B.I. to have been connected with the Machinery Processing and Converting Company, of (4366 Park avenue) New York, which purportedly handled the packing of the explosives at Camp Gail near Pipersville, Pa.

Four Local Jews On National Board To Aid Overseas

At the New York elections of the Joint Distribution Committee, major American agency aiding distressed Jews abroad, held recently, four Kingston men were chosen to serve on the national council: Rabbi Herbert I. Bloom, Solomon Dublin, Arthur Ewig and Richard Kalish. Mr. Kalish is a new member, the other three having been reelected.

The New York meeting marked the Joint Distribution Committee's completion of one-third of a century of relief, resettlement and reconstruction efforts in behalf of Jewish men, women and children overseas.

J.D.C. Chairman Edward M. M. Warburg announced that a record budget of $98,547,000 had been drawn for its 1948 operations. J.D.C. funds are provided through the nationwide campaign of the United Jewish Appeal. Last year the J.D.C. appropriated $75,092,000 for activities aiding almost 1,000,000 Jews in Europe and other areas, constituting the most extensive overseas operations ever undertaken in a 12 month period by a wholly private, voluntary organization.

The national council of the J.D.C. is the corporate membership of the organization. Its members elect the board of directors and empower the board to administer the funds and programs of the J.D.C.

Green, Survivor Of Connolly, Flies To New York City

Henry F. Green, formerly of Stone Ridge, a member of the crew of the Army Transport Joseph F. Connolly, which caught fire in the Atlantic earlier this week, flew from Halifax, N. S., to New York Wednesday night. It was learned today at the home of his brother, Harry M. Green, Stone Ridge insurance man.

The former Ulster county man in a telephone conversation shortly after last midnight said that it "was a bad experience, but it could have been worse." An assistant transportation clerk on the ship, Green landed in Halifax Wednesday on a rescue ship which picked up members of the Connolly's crew after flames swept the transport 900 miles east of New York early Monday. Mrs. Green reported that her brother-in-law was uninjured. At least three on one rescue ship were injured, the Associated Press reported yesterday, and the others were described as "still worn from an exhausting experience after 12 hours exposure in the cold Atlantic." "We certainly were glad to hear from him," Mrs. Green said. "He didn't say much about his experience," she added, "other than the fact that he was uninjured." The former Stone Ridge man maintains an address in New York. He had served in the U. S. Navy during the war and was on operations in the Pacific.

The Connolly, which returned the first war dead from Europe, was en route to Antwerp with a crew of 45 and one passenger and a cargo of 6,445 empty caskets destined for the homecoming of more soldiers dead.

Capt. Hickey Is Library President

Andrew S. Hickey of 446 Broadway, retired U. S. Navy captain, was elected president of the Kingston Library by the board of trustees at their annual meeting Wednesday night. He succeeds Burton Hildebrandt, who resigned as trustee last December. The trustees also elected William A. Kelly as vice-president, to replace Alexander B. Shufeldt, who declined to run again. The other officers, Mrs. Thirion, E. King and James H. Batts, were re-elected to their posts as secretary and treasurer. The trustees' meeting followed a largely attended meeting of the members of the library, who elected Clair S. Sheaffer to the board of trustees for a three-year term to succeed Shufeldt, and re-elected James H. Batts and Dr. Frederic W. Halcorn to the board for three-year terms.

Not Too Late For Christmas Seal Returns

Although the 1947 Christmas Seal Sale officially closed December 25, it is not too late for those who overlooked acknowledging their Christmas Seal letters to make returns. Edmund P. Rochford, county Seal Sale chairman, announces,

"Anyone who comes across an unanswered Christmas Seal letter should remember that by answering it he will help protect his own health and the health of everyone else in the community," Mr. Rochford said.

The 1948 tuberculosis control program of the Ulster County Tuberculosis and Health Association, supported by funds raised in the 1947 Seal Sale, is now underway. Any further returns will quickly be converted into community health benefits.

To Palestine

Arkady Sobolev, assistant secretary general of the U.N. and a veteran of the Russian Foreign Office, will be top UN officer of the five-man UN Palestine commission.

State Police Car, Truck Damaged in Route 32 Collision

A State Police patrol car and a large refrigerator truck were badly damaged in a collision on Route 32, at the entrance to the Ulster County Tuberculosis Hospital at 6 p. m. Wednesday, state police reported.

The police automobile was being driven by Lieutenant Joseph A. Steele of the Warthorn station. According to the state police report, Lt. Steele's car was struck by a Mack refrigerator truck driven by Harvey Russell Caine, Jr., 498 Second street, Albany, in an easterly direction on Route 32, and at the entrance to the hospital, skidded on the icy pavement. The back end of the truck struck the police car, the report states.

No personal injuries were sustained, but both vehicles were badly damaged and had to be towed away, state police said. The refrigerator truck is owned by the Tobin Packing Company of West Albany.

Good Oil Points
Oil men have found that good oil sites often are found in areas where there was an ocean and abundant marine life a million or more years ago.
